USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's fourth highest bowl winning percentage (.643) among the 65 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind only Oklahoma State's .667, Georgia Tech's .656 and Penn State's .649). USC is just 2 wins behind Alabama for most bowl victories, 29 to 27. Troy's 42 bowl appearances rank fourth behind only Alabama (51), Tennessee (44) and Texas (43), and are tied with Nebraska. USC once won 9 consecutive bowl games (the 1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival); only Florida State has won more in a row (11).

USC's overall post-season record is 27-15.

The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990. Troy has appeared in an unprecedented 29 Rose Bowls, where it has a 21-8 mark. That's not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 8 of its last 10 Rose Bowls. USC has also appeared in 11 other bowls—the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, Sun (John Hancock) Bowl (twice), Freedom Bowl (twice), Cotton Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl and Orange Bowl.

USC FOOTBALL ORANGE BOWL NOTES

RANKINGS
USC is ranked first by AP and USA Today/ESPN. Oklahoma is second in both polls.

SERIES
USC holds a 5-2-1 lead in its series with Oklahoma, with all contests occurring in the regular season. The Trojans have won the last 4 meetings (23-7 in 1988 in Los Angeles, 12-0 in 1982 in Norman, 28-24 in 1981 in L.A. and most recently 20-10 in 1992 in Norman when Troy scored 20 unanswered points in the fourth quarter) and they are unbeaten in the last 5 contests (a 7-7 tie in 1973 in the Coliseum). In every meeting, at least one of the teams was ranked by AP. In fact, USC was No. 1 in 3 of its games against the Sooners (1963-73-81). Also, USC has twice beaten a No. 2 Oklahoma squad (in 1981 and 40-14 in 1964 in Norman), while Oklahoma has gone 1-1-1 against top-ranked USC squads (winning in 1963, 17-12, in the Coliseum while ranked No. 3, then getting the tie in 1973 and losing in 1981). That 1981 contest saw No. 1 USC score the game-winning touchdown with 2 seconds to play (a 7-yard pass from QB John Mazur to TE Fred Cornwell) to beat No. 2 Oklahoma, 28-24, in the Coliseum. USC's only other loss to Oklahoma was in 1971, 33-20, in Norman. The Sooners have scored only 24 points against USC in the last 14 quarters. USC's 1982 shutout snapped Oklahoma's then-NCAA record consecutive game scoring streak at 181 games.

FOOTBALL POWERS
USC and Oklahoma have 2 of the top gridiron heritages in the country. USC has won 10 national titles (1928-31-32-39-62-67-72-74-78-2003) and Oklahoma has 7 (1950-55-56-74-75-85-2000). Oklahoma is third in career winning percentage among Division I-A schools (.714), while USC is ninth (.697). In all-time victories, Oklahoma is eighth (749) and USC is 10th (719). USC has appeared in 42 bowls (with 27 wins), while Oklahoma has been in 37 bowls (with 23 wins). Five Trojans have won Heisman Trophies (Mike Garrett, O.J. Simpson, Charles White, Marcus Allen, Carson Palmer) and 4 Sooners have (Billy Vessels, Steve Owens, Billy Sims and Jason White). Both have had legendary coaches (USC's Gloomy Gus Henderson, Howard Jones, John McKay, John Robinson and now Pete Carroll, and Oklahoma's Bennie Owen, Bud Wilkinson, Chuck Fairbanks, Barry Switzer and now Bob Stoops). Both even have distinctive songs: Fight On and Boomer Sooner.

USC VERSUS BIG 12
USC is 26-7-2 against Big 12 opponents. The Trojans have won 7 of the last 9 such meetings, but have dropped the last 2 (most recently losing at Kansas State, 27-20, in 2002). On the other hand, Oklahoma is 20-12-1 against the Pac-10, having won the last 2 meetings.

USC NO. 1 VS. 2

MIRROR IMAGES
Statistically, USC and Oklahoma match up very closely in 2004.

	USC	Oklahoma
Rushing Offense	176.1	215.1
Passing Offense	266.7	254.5
Pass Efficiency Offense	155.5	162.3
Total Offense	442.8	469.6
Scoring Offense	36.8	36.1
Rushing Defense	75.3	86.4
Passing Defense	196.3	193.8
Pass Efficiency Defense	99.3	111.3
Total Defense	271.6	280.2
Scoring Defense	12.5	13.7
Turnover Margin	+1.2	+0.8

Among the other statistical similarities in 2004: Each has a running back who has scored 15 TDs (USC's LenDale White and Reggie Bush, OU's Adrian Peterson). Both starting quarterbacks (Heisman winners USC's Matt Leinart, OU's Jason White) have thrown for 2,900 yards-and-change with only 6 interceptions. Both teams have returned 2 punts for touchdowns. Both kickers have missed nearly the same amount of field goals (9 by USC's Ryan Killeen, 8 by OU's Trey DiCarlo). USC has allowed opponents 182 first downs, OU has given up 184. USC averaged 85,229 fans per home game, OU was at 84,532.

WIN STREAKS
The Trojans have captured their last 21 home games (with 4 shutouts), which is a school record (the Pac-10 mark is 26 by California, 1919-23). Besides that Pac-10 leading 21-game home winning streak, USC also has the longest current Pac-10 win streaks for overall games (21), Pac-10 home games (a school- and Pac-10-record 15), Pac-10 games (15) and road games (9). Troy's 21-game winning streak is the second longest in the nation (behind Boise State's 22) and is USC's longest since a school- and Pac-10-record 25 consecutive from 1931 to 1933. The 15-game Pac-10 win streak is USC's longest since a school-record 19 consecutive in 1987-89 (the Pac-10 mark is 22 by Cal, 1947-50). The 9-game road winning streak (which does not include 2 neutral site victories during that span) is the Trojans' longest since a school-record 12 in a row in 1978-80 (which did not include 2 neutral site wins).

HIGH RANKING
USC has been ranked in the AP Top 10 for its past 31 games, its longest string since 34 in a row in 1978-80. The Trojans have been in the AP Top 5 in 27 of the last 32 polls. USC has been AP's No. 1 team in the last 17 polls, which ties a school record (1972-73) and equals the third longest streak in AP history (the record is 20 by Miami from 2001 to 2002).

RECORD WHEN NO. 1
USC has a 48-4-2 (.907) record in games when it is ranked No. 1 by AP. When a No. 1-ranked Trojan team faced a ranked opponent, it has gone 16-2-1 (.868), with the losses versus Oklahoma in 1963 and Alabama in 1977 and the tie with Oklahoma in 1973. When a No. 1 USC squad played an unranked opponent, it went 32-2-1 (.929), with the losses at Oregon State in 1967 and versus Arizona in 1981 and the tie with Stanford in 1979.

WIRE-TO-WIRE NO. 1
USC is looking to become only the second team ever to be ranked No. 1 in the AP pre-season poll and hold that top ranking the entire season (Florida State did it in 1999). Four other teams—Notre Dame in 1943, Army in 1945, Nebraska in 1971 and USC in 1972—were No. 1 in every regular season ranking, but either did not start off No. 1 in the pre-season poll (Nebraska and USC) or there was no pre-season poll (Notre Dame and Army).

BACK-TO-BACK AP CHAMPS
If USC wins the 2004 AP national championship, it would be the 10th time that a team wins consecutive AP national championships. The others: Minnesota (1940-41), Army (1944-45), Notre Dame (1946-47), Oklahoma (1955-56), Alabama (1964-65), Nebraska (1970-71), Oklahoma (1974-75), Alabama (1978-79) and Nebraska (1994-95).

BEST START
At 12-0, USC is off to its best start since the 1972 national championship team finished the season at 12-0. A win would give USC its first-ever 13-win season.

PERFECT SEASONS
USC is looking for its eighth perfect (unbeaten, untied) season. The others: 1888 (2-0), 1889 (2-0), 1894 (1-0), 1920 (6-0), 1932 (10-0), 1962 (11-0) and 1972 (12-0).

USC'S WINNINGEST 3 AND 2 YEAR SPANS
USC's 35 wins over the past 3 years (11 in 2002, 12 in 2003 and 12 in 2004) represent the winningest 3-year period in Trojan history. The previous best 3-year stretch was 31 victories, on several occasions. Also, USC's 24 wins during the past 2 years (2003-04) is its best 2-year span.

SEASON ENDERS
USC is 60-40-11 (.590) is all season finales.

USC IN FLORIDA
USC is 1-4 in the state of Florida. The Trojans beat Iowa in the 2003 Orange Bowl, 28-17, but lost at Miami in 1966, at Florida in 1982, to Auburn in the 1987 Citrus Bowl in Orlando and at Florida State in 1998.

OKLAHOMA TROJANS
USC has had 9 lettermen in its history who prepped in Oklahoma: Calvin Clemens (1932-33-34), Stuart Gage (1993-94-95), Dwight McFadden (1992), Harry McKinney (1944-45-46-47), Robert Peoples (1938-39-40), Lynman Russell (1936-37), Scott Tinsley (1980-81-82), Mickey Upton (1965) and Ray Webha (1936-37-38). McKinney and Elbert Watts (1985) transferred to USC after attending Oklahoma.

CARROLL'S SECOND HALF SHOWING
Fourth-year head coach Pete Carroll's USC teams have been nearly unbeatable during the second half of the regular season. Indeed, his teams are 17-7 in the first half of the regular season and then 22-1 in the second half (not counting 2-1 in the bowls).

WHAT IF?
A number of Trojans—mainly offensive players—projected as starters in 2004 are not on the USC roster or have missed significant action. They include WR Mike Williams (not eligible after signing with an agent), DE Kenechi Udeze (left early for the NFL), FB Brandon Hancock (out all season with a knee injury), OT Winston Justice (suspended all season), TE Gregg Guenther (playing basketball) and WR Whitney Lewis (ineligible). And several others have missed some contests this season: TE Dominique Byrd (missed USC's first 4 games of 2004 with a knee injury), TB Hershel Dennis (missed first 2 games while suspended), WR Steve Smith (missed 5 games midseason games with a broken leg), OG John Drake (missed 2 games late season with an ankle sprain), CB Kevin Arbet (missed a late game with a knee sprain) and WR Chris McFoy (missed a late game with a knee sprain).

HOME, OVERALL ATTENDANCE RECORDS
USC averaged a school and Pac-10 record 85,229 fans per home game in 2004, shattering mark it established last year (77,804). USC also broke its home attendance total record with 511,373 fans (the old mark of 504,000 was set in 1933 when there were 8 home contests). USC also is averaging 73,519 fans for all of its games, above the school record for overall attendance average (72,482, set in 2003). If at least 64,257 fans show up for the Orange Bowl in 72,230-seat Pro Player Stadium, USC not only will set that mark but it will eclipse its overall attendance total record of 946,482, set in 2003 (Troy currently is at 882,226). Troy's California and Arizona State home games were sold out, marking only the second time in Trojan history that there have been back-to-back sellouts in the Coliseum (the other time was in 1947 for the UCLA and Notre Dame games). Those 2 crowds (90,008 for California and 90,211 for Arizona State) were USC's largest crowds to see a non-UCLA/non-Notre Dame home game since 1952, when 94,677 fans attended the USC-California game when the Coliseum's capacity was greater than present.

SELLOUTS
USC has had 3 home sellouts in 2004 (California, Arizona State, Notre Dame), a school record. USC also will play before 7 regular-season sellouts—home and away—in 2004 (the 3 home games plus road contests versus Virginia Tech, Washington State, Oregon State and UCLA), also a school record. The Trojans also will play before 8 season sellouts (including a bowl), another school record.

CONNECTIONS
USC has no players from Oklahoma on its roster, while the Sooners claim 5 Californians…Oklahoma co-defensive coordinator Bo Pelini was an assistant for Pete Carroll at the New England Patriots (1997-99)…USC wide receivers coach/passing game coordinator Lane Kiffin was the defensive quality control coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2000 (his father, Monte Kiffin, is the defensive coordinator with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers)…USC associate athletic director in charge of student-athlete academic services Dr. Magdi El Shahawy was a 3-year (1986-89) letterman nose guard at Florida State, then he worked in the Seminole athletic department…USC video coordinator Joe Schrimpl held a similar position at Miami (1998).

USC'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS
USC has won 10 national championships in football: 1928-31-32-39-62-67-72-74-78-2003. In 5 other years (1929-33-76-79-2002), the Trojans were picked by some as No. 1, but the selectors were deemed not all-encompassing enough to claim a legitimate national crown.

USC'S PAC-10 TITLES
After sharing the Pac-10 championship in 2002, USC won the 2003 Pac-10 title outright (its first outright crown since 1989) and again in 2004. That's the first time that USC won 3 consecutive Pac-10 titles since 1987-88-89. USC has now won the league title 34 times, twice as much as any other school.

SCHEDULE
USC is defending its national championship against a schedule that features 7 opponents who played in bowls last season…and 7 who will appear in bowls this season. Troy's 2004 slate is currently ranked the nation's eighth most difficult, according to the USA Today/Sagarin ratings. USC, which beat 3 of the current AP Top 25 teams (No. 4 California, No. 9 Virginia Tech and No. 21 Arizona State), is the only school in the nation with wins over a pair of current Top 10 teams. The challenge started right away, as the Trojans opened on Aug. 28 against perennial power Virginia Tech in the Black Coaches Association Football Classic in Landover, Md. USC then hosted Colorado State and traveled to BYU and Stanford before having a trio of home games (California, Arizona State and Washington)—the first time since 1998 that Troy played 3 straight at home—followed by another pair of road contests (Washington State and Oregon State). The Trojans—who had 3 byes in 2004 for the second consecutive year—then returned home to host Arizona and Notre Dame before concluding their regular season on "Championship Saturday" (Dec. 4) at UCLA. Troy now faces No. 2 Oklahoma in the BCS Championship Game in the Orange Bowl. It's a schedule that helped USC better the average overall (72,806) and home (77,804) attendance school records it set last year…and gave credence to the Trojan marketing department's 2004 slogan of "Still The Hottest Ticket In Town."

2004 ALL-AMERICANS

2004 ALL-PAC-10
QB Matt Leinart and TB Reggie Bush were named 2004 Pac-10 Co-Offensive Players of the Year, while DE-DT Shaun Cody was Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year. It's just the third time that a Pac-10 school had both an Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year, and the first time that teammates shared the award on one side of the ball. This is the second year in a row that Leinart won the league's Offensive MVP. He's the fourth player (and just the second quarterback) to win that honor twice, joining USC's Charles White (1978-79), Stanford's John Elway (1980-82) and Washington State's Rueben Mayes (1984-85). It's also the third year in a row that a Trojan has been the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year (quarterback Carson Palmer won it in 2002). Cody, who shared the honor with Oregon State defensive end Bill Swancutt, is USC's first All-Pac-10 Defensive MVP since linebacker Chris Claiborne in 1998. He is also the first Trojan defensive lineman so honored. Besides that trio, four other Trojans made the All-Pac-10 first team: DT Mike Patterson, LBs Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu and P Tom Malone. Bush made the first team as both a tailback (USC's first tailback first teamer since 1989) and punt returner, and the second team as a kickoff returner. Grootegoed and Tatupu were USC's first linebacker duo to make first team since 1989. Trojans on the All-Pac-10 second team were TB LenDale White, OT Sam Baker and S Darnell Bing. TB Desmond Reed made the second team as a special teams player. USC's honorable mention All-Pac-10 players were TEs Dominique Byrd and Alex Holmes, WR Dwayne Jarrett, S Jason Leach, LB Dallas Sartz, DT Manuel Wright and CB Justin Wyatt.

LOOKING TO 2005
On USC's current 48-man 2-deep (including the punter and kicker), 34 players (16 on both offense and defense, plus 2 specialists) are non-seniors, including 17 starters (9 offense, 7 defense, 1 specialist). And that does not include 3 usual underclass starters who are either injured or ineligible, but are expected back in 2005.

OREGERON TO OLE MISS
USC defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator/assistant head coach Ed Orgeron was named the head coach at Mississippi on Dec. 16. He will continue his duties with the Trojans through the Orange Bowl. During his 7 seasons (1998-2004) at USC, he produced 3 All-American first team defensive linemen, as well as 6 All-Pac-10 first teamers.

CARROLL, ORGERON IN ORANGE BOWL
This will be the third Orange Bowl visit for both USC head coach Pete Carroll and defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator Ed Orgeron. Both were with USC for the 2003 game. Also, Carroll was the secondary coach at Arkansas when it beat Oklahoma in the 1978 Orange Bowl. Orgeron was an assistant at Miami when it beat Nebraska in the 1989 and 1992 Orange Bowls and at Arkansas when it lost to Oklahoma in the 1987 Orange Bowl.

1979 DÉJÀ VU?
There were numerous similarities between last year's national champion Trojans and the USC team from 25 years earlier, the 1978 national champs. This year, again there are many coincidental repeats between the 2004 Trojans and the USC team from 25 years earlier, the 1979 squad that went 11-0-1 and finished No. 2 in the polls. As in 2004, that 1979 team was a pre-season No. 1 coming off a controversial split national title shared with an SEC team (Alabama) and a Rose Bowl win over a Top 5 Michigan team, and was led by a head coach in his fourth year at the helm (John Robinson). More similarities for both teams: an opening win against a "Tech" team (Texas Tech, Virginia Tech), an efficient left-handed quarterback in his second year as a starter (Paul McDonald, Matt Leinart) who set the school season touchdown pass record the previous year, a running back named White (Charles, who wore 12, and LenDale, who is No. 21), a player named Mike McDonald (this year's Mike is the son of the 1979 quarterback, Paul), a highly-touted freshman receiver from New Jersey (Timmy White, Dwayne Jarrett), a top Heisman candidate (Charles White, Matt Leinart) and a No. 1-ranked recruiting class. Also, eerily, the previous season for both squads featured a Heisman winner from Oklahoma who returned for his final year (Billy Sims, Jason White).

FUN FACT I
This is the first time that a pair of Heisman Trophy winners (USC's Matt Leinart and Oklahoma's Jason White) will face each other in a game.

FUN FACT II
USC has never played a game on Jan. 4. This is also the latest USC has ended a season since the 1891 campaign (Feb. 22, 1892); Troy's debut 1888 season also ended late (on Jan. 19, 1889).

FUN FACT III

FUN FACT IV
In years that USC beat UCLA and Notre Dame and then played in a bowl game, the Trojans are 10-1 (wins in 1938-62-67-72-74-76-78-79-2002-03 and the loss in 1981).

FUN FACT V
This will be the fourth time that USC enters a bowl game ranked No. 1 by AP. The Trojans were victorious in the previous 3 such bowls (1962-67-72), winning national championships each season.

FUN FACT VI
Under Pete Carroll, USC has allowed its 3 bowl opponents to average just 13.7 points.

USC STATISTICS OF NOTE

WINS

USC has won 32of its last 33 games, 33 of its last 35, 35 of its last 38 and 39 of its last 43.

DEFENSE

Defensively, USC currently is ranked in the nation's Top 10 in every defensive category: second in scoring defense (12.5, first in Pac-10), second in rushing defense (75.3, first in Pac-10), seventh in pass efficiency defense (99.3, second in Pac-10), seventh in total defense (271.6, first in Pac-10) and ninth in turnover margin (+1.2, first in Pac-10).

USC's total defense average of 271.6 is its lowest since the 1989 season (238.4) and the 4.2 yards per play allowed is its lowest since 1989's 4.2.

USC has allowed just 2 touchdowns and 1 field goal in the fourth quarter in 2004.

USC has held opponents scoreless in 27 of 48 quarters in 2004.

During its current 21-game winning streak, USC has not allowed a team to score more than 28 points (8 opponents in 2004 have been held to less than 14 points and only 3 have topped 20 points).

USC has posted 48 sacks in 2004 (4.0 per game).

USC has forced 32 turnovers in 2004 (19 interceptions, 14 fumbles).

USC is allowing opponents to convert just 26.6% of third downs (46-of-173).

In the last 6 games, USC has allowed just 14-of-86 on third-down conversions (including none in 27 tries by Washington and Oregon State).

Opponents have advanced into the red zone only 22 times in 2004.

USC has lost the turnover battle in just 1 game (Arizona) in 2004 (the Trojans are 30-4 under Pete Carroll when winning the turnover battle).

USC has intercepted a pass in 32 of the last 35 games, including 16 consecutive games before being blanked at Notre Dame in 2003.

USC has held 28 of its last 38 opposing teams to less than 100 rushing yards (8 times in 2004, 10 games in 2003 and 10 times in 2002).

Only 2 opposing runners have rushed for 100 yards against USC in the past 35 games (California's Adimchinobe Echemandu did so in 2003, breaking a streak of 16 consecutive games without a 100-yard rusher, and Cal's J.J. Arrington did so in 2004).

USC has 4 shutouts in its past 25 games (and 3 in its last 16 outings).

USC has posted a pair of shutouts in both 2003 and 2004 (before that, the last time USC had 2 shutouts in a season was 1982, when it had 3).

USC's first 3 opponents and 5 of its last 6 foes of 2004 did not get more than 300 total yards.

Under Pete Carroll, USC is 22-0 when holding opponents to less than 300 yards of total offense (7 times in 2004).

USC's trio of Reggie Bush, LenDale White and Dwayne Jarrett have accounted for 73.7% of USC's touchdowns in 2004 (42 of 57).

This is just the third time in USC history (along with 1979 and 1993) that there have been 6 Trojans with 20-plus catches (Dwayne Jarrett, Reggie Bush, Steve Smith, Dominique Byrd, Alex Holmes and Chris McFoy); David Kirtman needs 2 more catches to make it 7 Trojans, which would be a first.

USC's 600 combined rushing yards against Colorado State (322) and BYU (278) were the most by Troy in back-to-back games since getting 638 against Ohio State and Washington State in 1990.

USC has a knack for scoring unanswered points (10 times in 2004: 49 versus Colorado State, 21 twice at BYU, 21 and 24 versus Arizona State, 31 versus Washington, 35 at Washington State, 28 at Oregon State, 21 and 28 against Arizona, 38 versus Notre Dame), continuing a trend from 2003 (11 times) and 2004 (also 11 times) when Troy scored 20 or more consecutive points.

In its current 21-game winning streak, USC has won by a combined 496 points (an average of 23.6).

During the Pete Carroll era, USC has more than doubled the score of its opponents in the second half of games (856 to 391 points).

USC has won its last 10 games against AP Top 25 teams (the 6 mentioned in the previous item, plus No. 22 Washington, No. 14 Oregon and No. 25 UCLA in 2002, and No. 15 Arizona State in 2004) and has done so by a 381-159 score (an average score of 38-16).

USC has played before crowds of at least 85,000 in 8 of its past 15 games.

(30) KEVIN ARBET
Cornerback, 5-11, 190, Sr.*/Sr.

2004: Arbet, a senior who came to USC as a walk-on in 1999 but quickly earned a scholarship, played a key role as a cornerback in 2004 after receiving a sixth year of eligibility from the NCAA (because he was out of action for most of the past 2 seasons with a foot injury). He emerged as a starter 4 games into the 2004 season and started 6 times there (Stanford, California, Arizona State, Washington, Washington State and Oregon State). He sprained his right knee at Oregon State and missed the Arizona game. He served as USC's nickel back the last 2 games (Notre Dame and UCLA). Overall in 2004 while appearing in 11 games, he had 26 tackles, including 0.5 for a loss, 2 deflections and a 66-yard interception return (at Stanford, to set up a TD). He had 7 tackles against California, 4 versus Arizona State and 3 against Stanford and Washington State. He missed most of 2004 spring practice while recuperating from the injury.

2003: As a senior cornerback in 2003, Arbet appeared recovered from a foot injury that sidelined him for the 2002 season and he even started USC's first 2 games. But when pain persisted in his right foot from the 2002 injury, he had surgery prior to the Hawaii game and missed the rest of the 2003 season. He petitioned the NCAA to get a sixth year of eligibility in 2004 based on his injury. In the 2 games he played in 2003, he had 5 tackles (1 for a loss of 2 yards), a deflection and a forced fumble (which USC recovered to set up a TD). He also returned 4 punts for 19 yards (4.8 avg.). Four of the tackles came at Auburn.

2002: Arbet figured to start at cornerback in 2002 (and maybe even return punts and kickoffs again as a key special teamer). But he suffered a broken right foot in 2002 fall practice and was sidelined for the season (which enabled him to redshirt).

2001: Arbet played a number of roles as a junior in 2001: he backed up Kris Richard at cornerback, he was USC's nickel back, he played on many special teams and he returned punts and kickoffs. Overall while appearing in 11 games in 2001 (he missed the Oregon State contest with a sprained right ankle suffered at Arizona), he had 25 tackles, including 3 for losses of 11 yards (with 2 sacks for 7 yards), 6 deflections, 3 interceptions which he returned for 90 yards (30.0 avg.), including a 70-yard TD runback at Arizona, 1 fumble recovery, a team-best 25 punt returns for 225 yards (9.0 avg.) and 3 kickoff returns for 53 yards (17.7 avg.). For all this, he made the 2001 All-Pac-10 first team as the special teams player (non-kicker). He had 6 tackles at Washington and 4 at Arizona. Against Stanford, he returned 5 punts for 70 yards (including a career-best 47-yarder to set up a TD) and had the fumble recovery (leading to a Trojan field goal). His 20-yard interception return versus Arizona State set up a USC field goal. His other pick came against UCLA. He won USC's Special Teams Player of the Year Award.

2000: Arbet was an often-used cornerback as a sophomore in 2000, even starting 4 games (Arizona, Oregon, Stanford and Notre Dame). He was the backup to Kris Richard the rest of the time. Overall in 2000 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 31 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 1 yard, and 2 deflections. He also returned 7 kickoffs for 136 yards (19.4 avg.). He had 5 tackles against Oregon State and Oregon, 4 versus Colorado and Notre Dame, and 3 against Penn State, Stanford and Arizona State. He broke up 2 passes against San Jose State. He returned 3 kickoffs at Oregon State for 46 yards and 2 for 61 yards against San Jose State. He was also available at free safety (he was moved to that spot during 2000 spring drills).

1999: Arbet came to USC as a first-year freshman walk-on cornerback in 1999, but was so impressive in fall camp that he was given a scholarship in August, an almost unheard-of accomplishment. He served as a key backup cornerback (even starting as an extra defensive back against Hawaii and Louisiana Tech) and played on special teams. Overall, while appearing in 10 games in 1999, he made 13 tackles, 3 deflections, 1 interception and 1 fumble recovery. He had a huge game against Louisiana Tech, returning an interception 75 yards for a TD and recovering a fumble at the USC 22-yard line as Tech was threatening (he also had 7 tackles and 2 deflections in the game); for his performance, he was named the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week. Against Stanford, he made 2 tackles. He sprained his right ankle on the opening kickoff in the Hawaii opener (he did play in the first series, then sat out the rest of the game) and missed the San Diego State and Oregon games.

HIGH SCHOOL: He won 1998 All-Northern California, All-Region, Stockton Record All-Area MVP, Stockton Athletic Hall of Fame Foundation Defensive Back of the Year, Stockton Athletic Hall of Fame Student-Athlete Award, All-San Joaquin Athletic Association MVP and team MVP honors as a senior running back and defensive back at St. Mary's High in Stockton (Calif.). As a 1998 senior, he ran for 1,526 yards, scored 27 TDs, returned a kickoff 95 yards for a score and intercepted 6 passes (2 were returned for TDs). He once rushed for 250 on 10 carries in a game and had a 99-yard TD run in another.

He had 1,200 rushing yards, 13 TDs and 5 interceptions as a 1997 junior while being named to the All-San Joaquin Athletic Assocation first team.

As a sophomore in 1996, he was moved up to the varsity for the final 3 games of the season and rushed for 500 yards and 4 TDs.

He also was on the basketball and track teams at St. Mary's.

PERSONAL: He is a sociology major at USC. His stepfather is Jeff Simmons, a 3-year (1980-82) letterman wide receiver at USC who led the Trojans in receiving in 1982 and whose 106 career receptions set a since-broken USC record. His cousin, Lamarr Arbet, was a defensive lineman at San Jose State and his uncle, Darren Arbet, is the head coach of the San Jose SaberCats of the Arena Football League. His sports heroes are Michael Jordan and Muhammad Ali.

(17) JOHN DAVID BOOTY
Quarterback, 6-3, 195, So./So.

2004: Booty, believed to be the first prep football player to graduate a full year early from high school and enroll at a major Division I-A university, was set to serve as the No. 2 quarterback as a sophomore in 2004. But he suffered a badly bruised right (throwing) elbow in 2004 fall practice, which limited his participation, so he redshirted.

2003: As just a first-year freshman in 2003, Booty emerged as USC's No. 2 quarterback by mid-season. Overall in 2003 while seeing limited backup action in 5 games (Stanford, Notre Dame, Wahsington, Arizona and UCLA), he completed 7-of-14 passes (50.0%) for 90 yards. He broke his left wrist against UCLA, which sidelined him for USC's last 2 games of 2003. He was 1-of-4 for 13 yards against Stanford in his first action as a Trojan, then hit his only pass attempt (a 5-yarder) at Notre Dame, was 3-of-6 for 63 yards at Arizona and 2-of-3 for 9 yards against UCLA.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a junior quarterback in 2002 at Evangel Christian Academy in Shreveport (La..), he led his team to the Class 5A state title while throwing for 4,144 yards and 38 touchdowns while earning Student Sports Underclass All-American and Class 5A All-State honors.

He also led Evangel Christian to the Class 5A state title as a 2001 sophomore, passing for 4,330 yards and 50 TDs while being named a Student Sports Underclass All-American and Class 5A All-State .

As a 2000 freshman, he completed 9-of-11 passes.

In his career, he threw for 8,474 yards on 555-of-864 passing (64.2%) with 88 touchdowns and 26 interceptions. Because Louisiana rules allow junior high students to compete on high school teams if the school is a kindergarten-through-12th grade school, he actually played some varsity football for Evangel Christian since the seventh grade.

PERSONAL: His father, Johnny, played quarterback at Arkansas, Louisiana Tech and Mississippi State, then coached football at Evangel Christian. His brother, Josh, was a quarterback for the Cleveland Browns who played at LSU for 2 seasons (1999-2000) following a 5-year (1994-98) baseball career as an infielder in the Florida Marlins organization (including 13 games in the majors). Another brother, Abram, was a wide receiver at LSU (1997-1999) and Valdosta State (2001).

(31) WILLIAM BUCHANON
Wide Receiver, 6-3, 190, Jr.*/Sr.

2004: Buchanon, who also has seen action at cornerback in his carer (where he has starting experience), was a reserve wide receiver as a junior in 2004. Overall in 2004 while seeing action in 11 games (all but UCLA), he had 4 catches for 15 yards (3.8 avg.). He caught 2 passes for 11 yards versusArizona.

2003: Buchanon began his 2003 sophomore season as a backup cornerback, but was switched back to backup wide receiver by mid-season. Overall in 2003 while seeing action in 7 games (all but California, Washington State, Arizona, UCLA and Oregon State), he made 3 tackles, an interception and a deflection on defense, but didn't have a catch on offense. He suffered a sprained back prior to the Washington State game and missed USC's last 4 games. He had 2 tackles and the interception against Stanford.

2002: Buchanon came into his 2002 redshirt freshman season as a backup wide receiver, but was moved to cornerback in the pre-season when injuries hit the secondary. He made an immediate impression, even starting 3 mid-season games (Oregon State, Washington State, California) when Ronald Nunn got hurt (he saw significant action at Kansas State when Nunn was injured early in that game). Overall in 2002 while appearing in 11 games (all but Auburn and Arizona State), he had 19 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 4 yards, and 6 deflections. He had 4 tackles at Kansas State and 3 deflections at Washington State. He sprained his neck at Stanford and missed the Arizona State game.

2001: Buchanon saw brief action at wide receiver in USC's first 2 games (San Jose State and Kansas State) of 2001, his first year at USC, but then a lower back sprain sidelined him for the rest of the season. The early-season injury allowed him to redshirt. He did not catch a pass.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2000 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports Senior All-American, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region Super 30, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF San Diego Section first team and All-Avocado League Co-MVP honors as a senior at Oceanside (Calif.) High. He had 30 receptions for 553 yards (18.4 avg.) and 5 TDs in 2000. Oceanside was 9-4-1 in 2000.

As a 1999 junior, he caught 24 passes for 553 yards (23.0 avg.) and 5 TDs as Oceanside won the CIF San Diego Section Division II title.

He made 30 catches for 302 yards (10.2 avg.) as a 1998 sophomore.

In his career, he caught 90-plus passes for 1,621 yards and 15 scores. He also had 5 career interceptions (1 for a TD) as a defensive back in his career.

He also was on the track team at Oceanside, with bests of 11.19 in the 100 meters, 22.73 in the 200 meters, 48.6 in the 400 meters, 21-10 ¾ in the long jump and 43-11 in the triple jump.

PERSONAL: He's an African American studies major at USC. His father, Willie, was a 1971 All-American cornerback at San Diego State who was a 3-time Pro Bowler during his 11-year (1972-82) NFL career, the first 7 seasons with the Green Bay Packers and the last 4 with the San Diego Chargers (he also prepped at Oceanside). Willie's second cousin is former Trojan fullback C.R. Roberts (1955-56).

(5) REGGIE BUSH
Tailback, 6-0, 200, So./So.

CAREER: In his career, Bush has proven to be a 5-way threat as he has produced touchdowns via rushing, receiving, kickoff returning, punt returning and passing. He has 3,512 all-purpose yards in his career. He has scored 23 TDs in his 25-game career (9 rushing, 11 receiving, 1 on kickoff returns, 2 on punt returns). He has 54 plays of 20-plus yards in his career. His 991 career kickoff return yards is fourth on USC's all-time list and his 369 career punt return yards is 19th on USC's all-time chart.

2004: The electrifying, multi-purpose Bush, who brings flash and dash with his incredible speed and moves, was a difference maker as a sophomore tailback in 2004. He was college football's most exciting player. Overall 2004 while appearing in all 12 games, he ran for 833 yards on 137 carries (6.1 avg.) with 6 TDs, caught 41 passes for 478 yards (11.7 avg.) with 7 TDs, returned 23 punts for 369 yards (16.0 avg.) with 2 TDs, returned 19 kickoffs for 501 yards (26.4 avg.) and even completed a 52-yard TD pass. He started only at Washington State (LenDale White started the other games at tailback, although both were on the field together often in 2004. He was fifth nationally in all-purpose running (181.8, first in Pac-10), as well as ninth in punt returns (16.0, first in Pac-10) and 10th in kickoff returns (26.4, second in Pac-10).

He had 2,181 all-purpose yards in 2004 (the most by a Trojan since Marcus Allen had a school-record 2,683 yards in his 1981 Heisman season and the fourth-most ever at USC) and averaged 9.9 yards every time he touched the ball (220 touches). He had 30 plays of 20-plus yards in 2004, including 8 of 50-plus yards. His 2 scoring punt returns in 2004 were the most in a season by a Trojan since R. Jay Soward also had 2 in 1998 (and are 1 shy of the USC and Pac-10 season records). If he tops the Pac-10 in punt returns (for the first time by a Trojan since Raymond Butler in 1979), he would be the first Trojan to win Pac-10 titles in both punt and kickoff returns (he was the league's 2003 kickoff return leader). And if he leads the Pac-10 in all-purpose yardage, he'd be the first Trojan to do so since Marcus Allen in 1981 (when he topped the NCAA).

He finished fifth in the voting for the 2004 Heisman Trophy. He was named to the 2004 All-American first team by Football Coaches, Cingular/ABC Sports, The Sporting News, ESPN.com, CSTV (all as a return specialist) and AP, SI.com and Rivals.com (as an all-purpose player), to the second team by Walter Camp and honorable mention by SI.com (as a punt returner) and Collegefootballnews.com. He also made the 2004 Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American first team. He was the 2004 Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Year (along with teammate Matt Leinart) and made the All-Pac-10 first team as both a tailback (USC's first tailback first teamer since 1989) and punt returner, and the second team as a kickoff returner. He made the 2004 ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team and Rivals.com All-Pac-10 first team (as both a punt returner and utility player). He was USC's 2004 team MVP and won USC's Co-Player of the Game versus UCLA and Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" (longest run) Awards. He was a finalist for the 2004 Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award and Maxwell Award.

In the opener against Virginia Tech, he caught 3 long scoring passes to become the 10th USC player to catch a school-record 3 TD passes in a game (but the first running back to do so) and he had 258 all-purpose yards (127 on 5 receptions, 60 on 4 punt returns, 44 on 3 kickoff returns and 27 on 9 rushes), all of which earned him Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He rushed for 84 yards and a TD on 12 tries (along with a 39-yard kickoff return, 3 punt returns for 17 yards and a 2-yard catch) against Colorado State. At BYU, he and White became the first Trojan duo to each break the 100-yard rushing barrier since Chad Morton and LaVale Woods did so against Oregon State in 1996, as he had 124 yards (the first 100-yard outing of his career) with a career-long 66-yard TD run on 14 carries (he had 211 all-purpose yards as he also caught 4 passes for 42 yards, including a 21-yard TD, returned a kickoff 38 yards and had 7 yards on a pair of punt returns) and White had 110 rushing yards. He then had 240 all-purpose yards (95 on 16 rushes, 25 on 4 receptions, 85 on 4 kickoff returns and 35 on 2 punt returns) at Stanford, with a 17-yard tackle-breaking TD run and a 33-yard zig-zagging punt return to set up USC's winning score. He had 109 yards on 2 kickoff returns (including an 84-yarder), plus he rushed 8 times for 23 yards and caught a 6-yard pass, against California. He had 115 all-purpose yards (49 on 2 punt returns, including a 41-yarder in which he barely stepped out of bounds as he was breaking into the clear, plus 45 yards on 2 receptions and 21 on 5 carries) and caught a 10-yard TD pass versus Arizona State in just 3 quarters of action. He had 126 all-purpose yards (55 on 13 carries and 41 on a game- and career-best 6 receptions with a 15-yard TD, plus a 30-yard punt return) against Washington. At Washington State, he had 143 all-purpose yards (42 on 14 carries, 23 on 5 receptions and 78 on 3 punt returns) with 2 TDs (a 19-yard run and 57-yard punt return). At Oregon State, he had 249 all-purpose yards (88 on 11 rushes, 82 on 3 kickoff returns, 73 on 3 punt returns and 6 on 2 receptions) and had a dazzling reverse-his-field scoring punt return for the second consecutive week (this one was 65 yards) to earn Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He had 130 all-purpose yards (65 yards on 3 kickoff returns, 45 yards on 12 rushes, 19 yards on 4 receptions and 1 yard on a punt return) against Arizona. He took a short pass 69 yards for a TD against Notre Dame (he also ran for 25 yards on 8 carries). At UCLA, Bush had a pair of electrifying touchdown runs (a zig-zagging 65-yarder on the game's second play, then a career-long 81-yarder) among his career-best 335 all-purpose yards; he ran for a career-best 204 yards (the most by a Trojan since Shawn Walters' 234 in 1994 at Stanford) on 15 carries (he had 153 yards and both TDs on just 6 carries in the first half), plus he had 73 yards on a game-best 6 catches, 39 yards on 2 kickoff returns and 19 yards on 2 punt returns.

2003: Bush proved to be an impact player as a first-year freshman reserve tailback in 2003. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he ran for 521 yards on 90 carries (5.8 avg.) with 3 TDs, had 15 receptions for 314 yards (20.9 avg.) with 4 TDs, had a team-best 18 kickoff returns for 492 yards (27.3 avg.) with a TD and returned 2 punts for 4 yards (2.0 avg.). He also recovered a fumble (on a bad punt snap). He had 24 plays of 20-plus yards in 2003 out of 115 touches (rushes of 23, 27, 58, 20, 32 and 24 yards, receptions of 28, 37, 38, 27, 30 and 36 yards, and kickoff returns of 23, 25, 30, 34, 35, 35, 20, 58, 96, 30, 24 and 28 yards). He was 10th nationally in kickoff returns (27.3, first in Pac-10). He set USC's freshman all-purpose yardage record (1,331 yards). He was the first Trojan to lead the league in kickoff returns since Anthony Davis in 1974. He was named to the 2003 Scripps/Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-American first team, Collegefootballnews.com Freshman All-American honorable mention and Rivals.com Freshman All-American honorable mention and All-Pac-10 honorable mention squads, as well as ESPN.com All-Pac-10 Co-Newcomer of the Year. He also won USC's Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" Award (for the longest play).

He had 270 all-purpose yards at Washington (132 yards on 5 receptions—the most receiving yards ever by a Trojan running back—with TDs of 60 and 37 yards, plus 81 yards on 12 rushes and 57 yards on 2 kickoff returns). Against Oregon State, he had 173 all-purpose yards (71 on 6 rushes, 48 on 3 receptions with TDs of 30 and 3 yards and 54 on 2 kickoff returns). At Notre Dame, he rushed for a game-best 89 yards on 6 carries (14.8 average), including a 58-yard cutback TD run (he was untouched), and he caught a 38-yard pass. He ran for 64 yards on 11 tries and also had a 58-yard kickoff return at Arizona. He had 54 yards on 9 carries with 2 scores (23 and 27 yards) against Hawaii, plus he caught a 28-yard pass and returned a kickoff 20 yards. Against UCLA, he had 10 yards on 6 rushes, 32 yards on 2 catches and 105 yards on 3 kickoff returns (including a 96-yard TD, USC's first scoring kickoff return since 1998) and he was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week. Against Michigan in the Rose Bowl, he had 41 yards on 8 rushes, 42 yards on 2 catches, 45 yards on 2 kickoff returns and 4 yards on 2 punt returns. He also ran for 34 yards on 6 attempts against Stanford, 27 yards on 4 carries (he also returned a kickoff 23 yards) at Arizona State, 19 yards on 6 tries against BYU (he also returned a kickoff 30 yards), 15 yards on 7 attempts against Washington State (he also had 62 yards on 3 kickoff returns and recovered a fumble on a bad punt snap that set up a USC field goal), 9 yards on 5 carries at Auburn, 7 yards on 4 carries at California (he also returned 2 kickoffs for 38 yards).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 2002 Parade All-American (and the top running back), USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports All-American first team, Tom Lemming All-American, The Insiders.com All-American second team, Tom Lemming Super Team, Super Prep Elite 50, Prep Star Top 100 Dream Team, The Sporting News Hot 100, FOX Sports 50, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF San Diego Section first team, San Diego Union-Tribune Offensive MVP and All-Grossmont South League Offensive MVP pick as a senior running back at Helix High in La Mesa (Calif.). He ran for 1,691 yards on 140 carries (12.1 avg.) with 27 TDs in 2002 despite missing 4 games with a broken wrist. Helix advanced to the CIF San Diego Section Division II finals.

As a junior in 2001, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team and All-CIF San Diego Section first team Offensive MVP. He ran for 2,200-plus yards, averaged 36.4 yards per rushing touchdown, scored 204 points (on 34 TDs, including 6 on receptions and 2 on punt returns) and had 3,135 all-purpose yards in 2001.

He made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team in 2000. In his career, he ran for 4,995 yards (averaging 12.0 a carry) and scored 450 points.

He also competed in track at Helix, placing third in the 2002 California state 100 meters final and posting bests of 10.42 in the 100 (the fastest prep time in California in 2002 and the fastest among the nation's 2002 senior footballers) and 21.06 in the 200 meters (third fastest prep in California in 2002). He placed second in the boys' 50-meter dash in 5.85 at the 2003 Los Angeles Invitational Indoor Meet. Current Trojan Travis Watkins also attended Helix.

PERSONAL: He's a psychology major at USC. His nickname is "The President" (because of that, he humorously was singled out in remarks by President George W. Bush during USC's national championship visit to the White House in March of 2004). He covered the 2003 Super Bowl as a reporter for NFLHS.com.

2004: As a first-year freshman in 2004, Byers started USC's last 4 games (Oregon State, Arizona, Notre Dame and UCLA) at left offensive guard for an injured John Drake and performed well. Before that, he served as a backup there and at center. He made the 2004 The Sporting News Freshman All-American second team and The Sporting News Freshman All-Pac-10 first team .

As a junior in 2002, he won All-State honorable mention, All-Area and All-Conference honors while posting 138 tackles, 29 tackles for loss and 5.5 sacks on defense.

He also competed in basketball and track at Loveland.

(86) DOMINIQUE BYRD
Tight End, 6-3, 260, Jr./Jr.

2004: Byrd, equally effective blocking and catching, had quite an impact at tight end as a junior in 2004 in USC's final 8 games. He missed the first 4 contests (Virginia Tech, Colorado State, BYU and Stanford) after breaking his left kneecap in a pickup basketball game just before 2004 fall practice began. But when he returned, he was impressive. Overall in 2004, he had 34 receptions (fourth on USC) for 326 yards (9.6 avg.) with 2 TDs, plus made a tackle. All of his catches game in the last 7 games. He made 2004 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He missed 2004 spring practice while recuperating from a knee injury.

He had 3 catches for 39 yards against Arizona State (his first receptions in 13 games since getting injured), then 5 catches for 57 yards against Washington, 5 for 32 yards at Washington State and 7 for 85 yards with 2 TDs (a one-handed 18-yarder and a 25-yarder)—all career highs—at Oregon State. He had 8 catches (a career-best for the second consecutive week) for 72 yards against Arizona, then 4 for 23 yards against Notre Dame and 2 for 8 yards at UCLA.

2003: Byrd was expected to be a key backup tight end as a sophomore in 2003, but when an injury sidelined Alex Holmes all season, Byrd emerged as the starter for the first 6 games and he excelled. But he tore ligaments in his left knee against Stanford, had surgery and was sidelined the remainder of the 2003 season. Overall in 2003 in those 6 games, he caught 14 passes for 268 yards (19.1 avg.). He caught 3 passes for 63 yards at Auburn, including a 42-yarder, 2 for 19 yards against BYU, 3 for 28 yards against Hawaii, 2 for 60 yards (with a 27-yard TD) at California, 2 for 68 yards at Arizona State and 2 for 30 yards against Stanford before going out with the knee injury.

2002: Byrd was a backup tight end and special teams player as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. Overall in 2002 while appearing in 12 games (all but Kansas State), he had 1 reception for 10 yards (at Stanford) and made 2 tackles (both at Oregon). He also worked some at defensive end early in the season, but never saw action there.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2001 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Student Sports All-American second team, Super Prep Elite 50, Super Prep All-Midwest Offensive MVP, Prep Star All-Western Region and Student Sports All-Midwest first team honors as a senior at The Breck School in Minneapolis (Minn.). He caught 62 passes for 1,236 yards (19.9 avg.) and 25 touchdowns as a tight end in 2001 and had a team-high 108 tackles, including 21 for losses (with 4 sacks), and made 4 interceptions (returning 3 for TDs) as a linebacker.

As a junior in 2000, he had 56 receptions for 1,280 yards (22.9 avg.) and 17 scores on offense and 109 tackles on defense. In his career (he also played some at wide receiver), he had 147 catches for 3,008 yards (20.5 avg.) and 49 TDs while starting for 4 years.

He also was on the basketball team, earning 2002 Student Sports Grid-Hoops All-American third team notice while averaging 17.3 points as a junior, and track team, going 11.2 in the 100 meters and 6-4 in the high jump. He started on the varsity basketball team since the eighth grade after obtaining a waiver to play at that level. Current Trojan Nick Vanderboom also prepped at The Breck School.

He returned 5 punts for 14 yards (2.8 avg.) and had a tackle while appearing in 10 games in 2004, but did not catch a pass. He sprained his knee prior to the Washington State game and missed that contest and the Oregon State game.

2003: As a sophomore in 2003, Carlson spent his second season as USC's punt returner and also served as a reserve wide receiver. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he had a team-best 21 punt returns for 188 yards (9.0 avg.), but he did not catch a pass. He returned 4 punts for 66 yards (with a 20-yarder) at Arizona State, 3 versus Stanford (29 yards) and Notre Dame (11 yards) and 2 against Washington (17 yards), Washington State (13 yards), Arizona (20 yards), UCLA (18 yards) and Oregon State (54 yards). He had arthroscopic surgery on his left shoulder following 2003 spring practice. He was awarded a scholarship in the spring of 2003.

2002: As a redshirt freshman walk-on reserve wide receiver, Carlson appeared in 12 games (all but the Auburn opener), primarily as a sure-handed punt returner. Although he did not catch a pass, he led USC in punt returns, running back 27 for 177 yards (6.6 avg.). It was the most punt returns by a Trojan since Larry Parker had 29 in 1995. He had a 41-yard return against Iowa in the Orange Bowl and a 28-yarder versus Notre Dame.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2000 Prep Star All-West, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay/Westside and All-Western League selection at Pacific Palisades (Calif.) High. He caught 66 passes for 1,380 yards (20.9 avg.) with 26 TDs as a wide receiver in 2000 and had 4 interceptions as a defensive back. He also scored 2 TDs each on punt and kickoff returns. He even had to play quarterback when the starter went down with an injury in the opening round of the playoffs; without ever having taken a snap in practice or a game, he threw for 260 yards and 3 TDs (and ran for another 2) while completing 11-of-16 passes (he hit his final 11 throws).

He attended Taft High in Woodland Hills (Calif.) before going to Pacific Palisades. As a 1999 junior at Taft, he had 55 catches for 1,220 yards (22.2 avg.) with 11 TDs as a wide receiver and he also played defensive back. He was named All-League.

(10) MATT CASSEL
Quarterback, 6-5, 230, Sr.*/Sr.

2004: The versatile Cassel, who was USC's No. 2 quarterback earlier in his career and who also had several stints at tight end, switched back to quarterback prior to 2004 fall camp and backed up Matt Leinart there as a senior in 2004. He also played on some special teams. He made a key recovery of an onside kick late in the UCLA game. Overall in 2004 while seeing brief action in 8 games (all but Virginia Tech, BYU, Stanford and California), he completed 10-of-14 passes (71.4%) for 97 yards, with an interception. He hit all 3 of his passes for 25 yards against Arizona State, then was 4-of-5 for 39 yards against Washington, 2-of-3 for 28 yards against Arizona and completed his only pass (for 5 yards) versus Notre Dame. He missed 2004 spring practice while pitching for USC's baseball team.

2003: Cassel spent the first half of his 2003 junior season as the backup quarterback to Matt Leinart before being moved to a reserve tight end role (he made a similar mid-season move to wide receiver in 2001). Overall in 2003 while seeing action in 8 games (Hawaii and Arizona State at quarterback, then Washington, Washington State, Arizona, UCLA, Oregon State and Michigan at tight end and special teams and Michigan), he completed 6-of-13 passes (46.3%) for 63 yards, but did not catch a pass. He was 2-of-3 for 21 yards against Hawaii, then came in when Leinart was injured in the second quarter at Arizona State and was 4-of-10 for 42 yards. He won USC's Howard Jones/Football Alumni Club Academic Award (as the upperclassman with the highest GPA).

2002: Cassel served as USC's No. 2 quarterback behind Carson Palmer as a sophomore in 2002. He saw late action in 10 games (all but Auburn, Kansas State and Washington State). Overall in 2002, he completed 3-of-4 passes (75.0%) for 27 yards and ran for 1 yard on 1 carry (1.0 avg.). After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his knee.

2001: Cassel, the backup quarterback behind Carson Palmer as a redshirt freshman in 2001, proved to be a good enough athlete to get on the field in a variety of roles in 2001. He appeared in 7 games (Washington, Notre Dame, Arizona, Oregon State, California, UCLA and Utah) as a wide receiver and on special teams; he also played quarterback briefly at California. Overall in 2001, he was 1-of-2 (50.0%) for 5 yards passing, ran for 22 yards on 3 carries (7.3 avg.), caught a 12-yard pass and made a tackle. He did a little bit of everything at California, catching a 12-yard pass as a wide receiver, making a tackle on special teams and, in his first career action at quarterback, hitting 1-of-2 passes for 5 yards and gaining 20 yards on a run. He also gained 4 yards on a reverse at Notre Dame. He won USC's Co-Lifter Award.

BASEBALL: He was a pitcher on USC's baseball team in the spring of 2004. He suffered a fractured left foot in midseason and was sidelined for several weeks. Overall, he appeared in 8 games (starting once), posting an 0-1 record and a 9.35 ERA in 8 2/3 innings of work, with 10 strikeouts and 4 walks. He also struck out in his only at bat. He was selected in the 36th round of the 2004 draft by the Oakland Athletics.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 1999 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Orange County Register Fab 15 third team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 second team and All-L.A. City second team pick as a senior quarterback at Chatsworth (Calif.) High. He completed 137-of-261 passes (52.5%) for 2,020 yards with 14 TDs and 5 interceptions in 1999, plus ran for 252 yards on 115 carries (2.2 avg) with 11 TDs. In one game, he passed for 324 yards with 5 TDs.

As a junior in 1998, he was named to the Student Sports Junior All-American, All-L.A. City first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley, Los Angeles Daily News All-Valley second team and All-League. He hit 199-of-360 passes (55.3%) for 2,930 yards with 26 TDs and 7 interceptions as a junior and also rushed for 496 yards with 6 scores. Chatsworth won the L.A. City 3-A title in 1998.

Also a fine baseball player, he helped Chatsworth to the L.A. City title in 1999 while hitting .390 with 3 home runs and 29 RBI as a first baseman and third baseman.

PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC with a B+ average (3.37 GPA). He played on the Northridge team that was a finalist at the 1994 Little League World Series. He was featured in the HBO documentary "Freshman Year," which was filmed at Chatsworth High in 1999-2000. In his spare time, he likes to jet ski and play ping pong. His sports hero is Joe Montana. As part of the "Read Across America" program, he read books to local elementary school classes in 2001. His older brother, Jack, is a pitcher in the San Diego Padres organization. His younger brother, Justin, is a sophomore on UC Irvine's baseball team.

(84) SHAUN CODY

CAREER: Cody had 125 tackles (including 30.5 tackles for losses, with 20 sacks) and 5 blocked field goals in his career.

2004: Cody, one of the nation's premier defensive linemen, started for his fourth season as a senior in 2004. He started 10 games at tackle and 2 (BYU and Arizona) at end, but usually played both positions in games. In the spring of 2004, he moved to end (the position he originally played at USC) after spending the previous 3 years at tackle. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 40 tackles, including 12 for losses of 82 yards (with a team-best 9 sacks for 74 yards), plus 2 forced fumbles, 3 deflections and a blocked field goal. He was a finalist for the 2004 Lombardi Award and Hendricks Award, and a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award and Lott Trophy. He was named a 2004 first team All-American by AP, Walter Camp, Cingular/ABC Sports, ESPN.com, SI.com and CSTV and a second team All-American by The Sporting News and Collegefootballnews.com. He was the 2004 Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year (with Oregon State's Bill Swancutt), the first Trojan so honored since linebacker Chris Claiborne in 1998 and the first Trojan defensive lineman ever to win that honor. He also was named to the 2004 ESPN.com and Rivals.com All-Pac-10 first teams. He was USC's 2004 Co-Defensive Lineman of the Year and a team captain. He was named to the prestigious 2004 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team.

He had 3 tackles against Virginia Tech and 4 against Colorado State (with 2 for losses, with a sack). Three of his 4 tackles at BYU were sacks. He added 3 tackles at Stanford, 4 tackles (with a sack) and a forced fumble against California, 2 stops (with a sack) and a blocked field goal against Arizona State, 4 tackles (with 0.5 for a loss) against Washington, and 2 tackles at Washington State, including a sack that caused a fumble (which USC recovered to set up a TD), and 2 deflections. He had 5 stops (2.5 for loss, with a sack) at Oregon State, then 6 tackles against Notre Dame and 3 stops (with a sack) and a deflection at UCLA.

2003: Cody started for his third season as a junior defensive tackle in 2003. Overall in 2003 while starting all 13 games, he had 26 tackles, including 10.5 for losses of 55 yards (with 6 sacks for 43 yards), plus a forced fumble, a deflection and 3 blocked field goals. He was named to the 2003 AP All-American third team and the All-Pac-10 first team, as well as the Collegefootballnews.com All-Pac-10 first team. He had 4 tackles at Arizona State (2.5 were sacks), 3 against Auburn, Oregon State (with a blocked field goal), California (with the blocked field goal), Washington State (with the forced fumble, which set up a USC TD) and Michigan (with a blocked field goal). He missed 2003 spring practice while recovering from a knee injury that cut short his 2002 campaign.

2002: As just a sophomore in 2002, Cody started for his second season at defensive tackle and was regarded among the nation's top defensive linemen (he also could play end). However, he tore ligaments in his right knee against California, which required surgery and forced him out the rest of the 2002 season. Overall in 2002 while starting USC's first 6 games, he had 20 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 1 yard, a deflection, fumble recovery (against Oregon State to set up a TD) and blocked field goal (at Kansas State). Offensive Guard, 6-4, 350, Sr./Sr.

2004: The massive, veteran Drake started USC's first 8 games at left offensive guard as a senior in 2004. He sprained his right ankle against Washington and missed part of that contest, then sprained his left ankle the following week at Washington State and missed the next 2 games (Oregon State, Arizona). Against Washington State, he hit both of his field goals (30 and 21 yards) and all 5 of his PATs while 5 of his 8 kickoffs pinned the Cougars within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks). At Arizona, he set USC's season PAT record when he connected on all 6 of his PATs (he also nailed his only field goal, a 36-yarder) and 6 of his 8 kickoffs were touchbacks. Against UCLA, Killeen made both of his field goals (38 and 32 yards) and 6-of-7 PATs (1 was blocked and returned for a 2-point defensive extra point) and 5 of his 9 kickoffs kept the Bruins within the 20. Against Oregon State, he hit a 29-yard field goal (giving him a share of the USC season field goal record), was 7-of-7 on PATs to set the Pac-10 season PAT mark and had 5 of his 9 kickoffs pin the Beavers within the 20 (with 3 touchbacks). He nailed all 4 of his PATs (he missed a field goal) and 3 of his 5 kickoffs were touchbacks against Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

2002: Killeen came to USC to handle kickoffs as a sophomore junior college transfer in 2002, but he also took over the placekicking job during the third game of the season (at Kansas State) and did a commendable job in that role ever since. He led USC in scoring in 2002 (95 points). Overall in 2002 while appearing in all 13 games, he hit 16-of-23 field goals (with a long of 48 yards) and 47-of-49 PATs. He hit his last 30 PATs. He was 3 field goals and 2 PATs shy of the USC season records. No Trojan hit more field goals in a season since 1990 or more PATs since 1979. On 35 of his 89 kickoffs, opponents have been pinned within the 20-yard line, with 27 touchbacks. He also made 2 tackles.

Against Auburn, he had 2 of his 5 kickoffs pin the Tigers within the 20-yard line, then 5 of his 7 kickoffs held Colorado within the 20 (with 4 touchbacks). At Kansas State, he replaced a struggling David Davis midway through the game and hit both of his PATs and also put all 3 of his kickoffs out of the end zone. He hit 3-of-4 field goals (43, 42 and 32 yards), including the first 2 tries of his career, plus added an extra point and saw 2 of his kickoffs pin Oregon State within the 20 to earn Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week notice. At Washington State, he missed a pair of field goals and 1 of his 4 PATs (however, 3 of his 5 kickoffs were touchbacks). He hit 3-of-4 field goals (34, 32 and 18 yards) and all 3 of his PATs (plus had a touchback among his 7 kickoffs) against California. Against Washington, he hit a pair of field goals (30 and 33 yards) and all 5 of his PATs, plus 4 of his 7 kickoffs were touchbacks. He was 5-of-6 on PATs and 1-of-2 on field goals (a career-long 48-yarder) at Oregon (1 of his 8 kickoffs were touchbacks). He hit all 7 of his PATs at Stanford and pinned the Cardinal within the 20 on 3 of his 8 kickoffs (with 2 touchbacks). Against Arizona State, he was perfect on his field goals (20 and 41 yards) and PATs (4-of-4) and pinned ASU within the 20 on 4 of his 7 kickoffs (with 3 touchbacks). At UCLA, he hit all 7 of his PATs and a 27-yard field goal, plus 3 of his 10 kickoffs kept them within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks). Against Notre Dame, he hit 3-of-4 field goals (22, 27 and 29 yards), all 5 of his PATs and 3 of his 9 kickoffs kept the Irish within the 20 (with 2 touchbacks). He hit 1-of-2 field goals (a 35-yarder) and all 5 of his PATs versus Iowa in the Orange Bowl.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He made 8-of-11 field goals and 27-of-30 PATs as a freshman placekicker in 2001 at Mt. San Antonio Junior College in Walnut (Calif.).

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2000 Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County honorable mention notice at Norco (Calif.) High.

PERSONAL: He is a social science/history major at USC.

(27) JASON LEACH
Safety, 5-11, 210, Sr.*/Sr.

2004: The steady, underrated Leach started for his second season at safety as a senior in 2004. He primarily played free safety, but was at strong safety for 3 early-season games (Colorado State, BYU and California) when Darnell Bing was injured. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 44 tackles, including 1 for a 2-yard loss, plus 1 fumble recovery, 1 forced fumble, 4 deflections and 2 interceptions for 20 yards (10.0 avg.). He made 2004 All-Pac-10 honorable mention. He was invited to play in the 2005 East-West Shrine Game.

He had 6 tackles at Stanford, 5 against Virginia Tech, Colorado State, BYU and UCLA, 4 versus California, Oregon State and Arizona and 3 against Washington. He returned an interception 14 yards at Oregon State and had a fourth-quarter pick at UCLA to seal the victory.

2003: Leach started all of his 2003 junior season at free safety after playing strong safety earlier in his career. Overall in 2003 while starting all 13 games, he had 88 tackles (second on USC), including 5.5 for losses of 15 yards (with a 4-yard sack), plus 6 deflections, 1 fumble recovery, 1 forced fumble and 2 interceptions for 25 yards (12.5 avg.) with a touchdown. He was named to the 2003 All-Pac-10 honorable mention squad. He also won USC's Bob Chandler Award (top underclassman student/athlete/leader).

At Arizona, he had a game-best 12 tackles (2 for a loss), plus a forced fumble (which set up a USC TD) and a deflection. He posted a game-high 11 tackles (with a deflection) at California. He added 9 tackles (with a sack) against Oregon State, 8 stops each against Arizona State (with an interception), Auburn, Washington and Michigan in the Rose Bowl (with 1 for a loss, plus a deflection), 6 tackles versus Notre Dame and Washington State, 4 against UCLA, 3 versus Hawaii (he also returned an interception 25 yards for a TD) and BYU, and 2 against Stanford.

2002: Leach backed up Troy Polamalu at strong safety again in 2002 as a sophomore and also played on special teams. He was used often in extra defensive back formations. He even started twice (against California and Iowa in the Orange Bowl) for an injured Polamalu. Overall in 2002 while appearing in all 13 games, he made 30 tackles, including 1 for a 12-yard loss, had 3 deflections, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble, and led USC in interceptions with 4 for 52 yards (13.0 avg.). He had 6 tackles at Washington State (playing most of the game after Polamalu got hurt), 5 at Stanford and 4 against Auburn. Against Iowa, he had 2 tackles, recovered a fumble (which USC recovered to set up a field goal) and returned an interception 15 yards. His other interceptions came against Colorado (for 6 yards), Washington State (16 yards to set up a USC TD) and California (15 yards to set up a USC field goal).

2001: Leach backed up Troy Polamalu at strong safety, but saw significant action in extra defensive back situations and on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2001. Overall in 2001 while appearing in all 12 games, he had 8 tackles and a deflection. He had 3 tackles against UCLA and 2 versus Arizona State and California.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 1999 Prep Star All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Tom Lemming All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Orange County Register Fab 15 third team, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Division I first team and Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team pick as a senior defensive back at Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif.). He had 75 tackles, 5 tackles for losses, 9 sacks, 2 forced fumbles and 5 interceptions in 1999, as well as 13 punt returns for 150 yards (11.5 avg) with a TD and 11 kickoff returns for 250 yards (22.7 avg) with a TD.

As a 1998 junior, he posted 70 tackles, 6 tackles for losses, 5 interceptions, 4 fumble recoveries and 2 forced fumbles.

He also ran track at Bishop Amat, with a best of 10.9 in the 100 meters. Current Trojan Alex Gomez also prepped at Bishop Amat.

(11) MATT LEINART
Quarterback, 6-5, 225, Jr.*/Sr.

CAREER: He is fourth on USC's career completions (506), passing yardage (6,546) and total offense (6,451) charts. He already has thrown 66 touchdowns (second most in USC history behind Palmer's 72) in just 25 career starts, with at least 1 TD in all but 1 game he has started (the first 24) and at least 2 TDs in all but 3 games (he had a string of at least 2 TDs in 15 consecutive games). He also has thrown at least 3 TDs 12 times (and at least 4 TDs 6 times, including 5 TDs twice). He is averaging a TD pass every 11.8 career attempts. During USC's current 21-game winning streak, he has thrown 58 TDs and just 9 interceptions (his career TD/interception ratio is 66/15). His 66 career TD passes—already eighth on the Pac-10 career ladder—are the most ever in back-to-back seasons by a Pac-10 quarterback. His 65.0% career passing percentage is above USC's career record of 64.6% set by Rob Johnson (1991-94). His 1.93% career interception rate is lower than the USC and Pac-10 career record of 1.95% set by Brad Otton (1994-96). USC is 24-1 when Leinart starts (his 96.0% winning percentage is the highest of any USC quarterback ever). He is attempting to be just the third quarterback in the last 30 years to lead his team to back-to-back national championships. In his 2 starts against Notre Dame (2003 and 2004), he has completed 73.5% of his passes (50-of-68) for 751 yards and 9 TDs.

2004: Heisman Trophy-winning Leinart, the left-handed record-setting 2-time All-American, started for his second season at quarterback as a junior in 2004. Overall in 2004, he completed 251-of-377 passes (66.6%) for 2,990 yards and 28 TDs with just 6 interceptions, plus he rushed for 3 TDs. He was ninth nationally in passing efficiency (154.5, second in Pac-10). His 251 completions, 2,990 passing yards, 28 TD passes and 2,957 yards of total offense in 2004 are all fourth on USC's season lists (the TD passes is tied for 10th on the Pac-10 list). His statistics were comparable or better in 2004 than they were at the same point last year, and he did it this year without 2003's top 2 pass catchers—WRs Mike Williams and Keary Colbert—and behind a rebuilt offensive line. And he had fewer interceptions and a better completion percentage and passing rating—and led USC to more wins—than Carson Palmer did after 12 games of his 2002 Heisman Trophy season. Against USC's 3 opponents of 2004 currently ranked by AP (Virginia Tech, California and Arizona State), he threw for 660 yards and 9 TDs with only 1 interception.

He won the 2004 Heisman Trophy (becoming the sixth Trojan to do so, along with Mike Garrett in 1965, O.J. Simpson in 1968, Charles White in 1979, Marcus Allen in 1981 and Carson Palmer in 2002). He was named the 2004 Walter Camp Player of the Year (joining 3 other Trojans to have been so honored, Simpson in 1967 and 1968, White in 1979 and Allen in 1981) and AP Player of the Year. He was named to the 2004 All-American first team by AP, Football Coaches, Walter Camp, ESPN.com, CSTV and Rivals.com, and to the second team by SI.com and Collegefootballnews.com. He was the 2004 Pac-10 Co-Offensive Player of the Year (along with teammate Reggie Bush), becoming just the fourth player to be win that honor twice (and the second quarterback, along with Stanford's John Elway). He was a finalist for the 2004 Davey O'Brien Award, Maxwell Award and Cingular Wireless/ABC Sports All-America Player of the Year Award. He also was named the 2004 ESPN.com and Rivals.com All-Pac-10 Player of the Year. He was USC's 2004 Player of the Game versus Notre Dame and a team captain. He was named to the prestigious 2004 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team (the first USC quarterback so honored).

In the opener against Virginia Tech while breaking in a new receiving corps, he hit 65.5% of his passes (19-of-29, despite missing on his first 4 throws) for 272 yards and 3 long TDs (he was 11-of-13 for 170 yards and 2 TDs in the second half, with 11 consecutive completions at one point). He was 20-of-31 for 231 yards and 2 short TDs (with 4 drops) in just 3 quarters of action against Colorado State (he also ran for a career-high 46 yards on 7 attempts). At BYU, he hit 22-of-34 passes for 236 yards and 2 TDs with an interception (breaking a streak of 102 pass attempts without a pick) and he also ran for a 1-yard TD (his first career score). He hit a career-best 76.7% of his passes (23-of-30) for 284 yards with a TD at Stanford and he also scored on a 1-yard sneak to earn Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He was 15-of-24 for 164 yards and 2 TDs (with a pick) against California. In just 3 quarters of action against Arizona State, he threw 4 TD passes on 13-of-24 passing for 224 yards with no interceptions and also had a 1-yard sneak for a touchdown to earn The Sporting News National Player of the Week honors. He was 24-of-43 (a career high for attempts) for 217 yards and 2 scores (with a pick) against Washington (he came out after the first series of the final quarter). He hit a career-best 82.1% of his passes (23-of-28) for 235 yards and 2 TDs at Washington State (he was 18-of-21, 85.7%, for 203 yards and a TD in the first half). In the fog at Oregon State, he completed 17-of-31 passes for 205 yards with 2 TDs and an interception. He completed a career-best 27 passes in 35 attempts (77.1%) for 280 yards and 3 TDs against Arizona despite sitting out most of the fourth quarter (he hit 11 consecutive passes in the first half and was 12-of-14 for 273 yards in the second half). Against Notre Dame, he equaled a USC and Notre Dame opponent single game record with 5 TD passes (the second time in his career that he has thrown that many) as he completed 24-of-34 aerials for a career-best 400 yards (the second most ever against the Irish) with no interceptions to earn both The Sporting News College Player of the Week and Cingular Wireless/ABC Sports All-America National Player of the Week honors. He was 24-of-34 for 242 yards and an interception at UCLA (he completed his first 10 passes of the game and was 15-of-17 for 103 yards in the first half), but he was held without a TD throw for the first time in 25 games as a starter.

2003: How's this for filling the shoes of a Heisman Trophy winner? Leinart, a sophomore who had never thrown a pass at USC while seeing brief action in just 3 games in 2002, won USC's starting quarterback job at the end of 2003 spring practice…by an ever-so-slight edge. He extended his hold on the job through 2003 fall practice, then put together a season in which it appeared there was little—if any—dropoff from Carson Palmer's 2002 Heisman production. In fact, Leinart's passing percentage, efficiency rating, TD passes, interceptions and won-loss record were better than Palmer's 2002 numbers. Overall in 2003 while starting all 13 games, Leinart completed 255-of-402 passes (63.4%) for 3,556 yards, 38 TDs and just 9 interceptions, plus he caught a 15-yard pass for a TD. He was a 2003 Collegefootballnews.com All-American first team, SI.com All-American second team and Rivals.com All-American honorable mention selection. He also was named the 2003 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year (only the second sophomore to win that honor, along with Stanford's John Elway in 1980) and made the All-Pac-10 first team, as well as being selected the ESPN.com All-Pac-10 MVP and first team and Collegefootballnews.com All-Pac-10 Player of the Year, Offensive MVP and first team. He was 1 of 10 semifinalists for the Davey O'Brien Award and he even was sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting. He won the Touchdown Club of Columbus' Archie Griffin Award (nation's MVP). He was USC's team MVP and won the USC Player of the Game versus Notre Dame award.

He was third nationally in passing efficiency (164.5, first in Pac-10) and 19th in total offense (268.8, second in Pac-10). In his last 9 games, he threw for 2,632 yards and 30 TDs with just 3 interceptions on 65.5% passing (182-of-278). He threw at least 2 TDs in his last 12 games (included was a string of at least 3 TDs in the first 5 of those contests). He set a Pac-10 season record with 212 consecutive passes without an interception—stretching over 8 games—and fell just 4 passes short of the Pac-10 career record. His 164.5 passing efficiency rating was the best season in USC history. His 255 completions were third on the USC season list. His 38 TD passes was a Pac-10 season record (and the second most by any sophomore in NCAA history). His 3,494 yards of total offense was second on the USC season chart. He passed for more season yards than any sophomore in USC history, he is the first USC soph to have back-to-back 300-yard passing games and he is the first USC soph to have thrown for 3,000 yards in a season.

In his first career start, he was an efficient 17-of-30 for 192 yards with a touchdown (on his first career pass) at Auburn. He threw 3 touchdown passes against BYU while hitting 19-of-34 passes for 235 yards (but he had 3 interceptions). He then completed 71.4% of his passes (15-of-21) for 220 yards and 2 TDs (with no picks) in 3 quarters of action against Hawaii. He was 21-of-39 for 277 yards and 2 scores (but threw 3 interceptions) at California (in the second half, he hit 16-of-24 throws for 191 yards). He completed 12-of-23 passes for 289 yards and 2 TDs (57 and 33 yards) with an interception despite missing most of the second quarter with a banged up knee and ankle at Arizona State (he played while hobbled during the second half). He was 18-of-27 for 260 yards and 3 TDs (all to Mike Williams) in 3 quarters of action against Stanford (in the first half, he was 16-of-20 for 249 yards and all 3 scores). He completed 76.6% of his passes (26-of-34) for 351 yards and 4 TDs (career bests for completions, yards and TDs, as well as tying an Irish opponent record for TD passes) at Notre Dame (he hit his first 7 throws). Then, for the second week in a row, he threw for 351 yards, 4 TDs and no interceptions, this time on 19-of-29 passing (65.5%) at Washington (he was named Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week). He was 17-of-31 for 191 yards and 3 TDs and no interceptions against a Washington State defense that was fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense (he was 6-of-7 for 93 yards and the 3 scores in the second half). At Arizona, he was 22-of-30 for 296 yards and 4 TDs (he was taken out midway through the third quarter) while setting a USC season record for consecutive passes without an interception. He was 23-of-32 for 289 yards and 2 TDs in 3 quarters of action against UCLA (he was 12-of-14 for 171 yards and a TD in the first quarter). Against Oregon State, he tied the USC game TD pass record (shared with Palmer and Rodney Peete) when he threw 5 scores (giving him a Pac-10 record 35 on the season) while hitting 22-of-38 passes for 278 yards with 2 interceptions (ending his Pac-10 season record streak of 212 consecutive passes without an interception, just 4 short of the Pac-10 career mark). He was named the Rose Bowl MVP as he threw 3 TD passes (on 23-of-34 passing for 327 yards) and he also caught a tricky 15-yard reverse pass for a TD against Michigan.

2002: Leinart was USC's third-string quarterback as a redshirt freshman in 2002. He appeared briefly late in 3 games (taking 2 snaps at Colorado, directing 3 series at Oregon and taking a snap at UCLA), but didn't throw a pass. He also served as a backup holder on placekicks, but wasn't called on in that role.

2001: Leinart redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 2001, his first year at USC. He spent the season as the co-backup to Carson Palmer, although he never got into a game.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2000 honors included Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Student Sports Senior All-American, Prep Star Dream Team, Student Sports Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region Super 30, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Gatorade California Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I Co-Offensive MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County Back of the Year, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-Serra League as a senior at Mater Dei High in Santa Ana (Calif.). He completed 192-of-309 passes (62.1%) for 2,870 yards, 28 TDs and 10 interceptions in 2000. Against national champion De La Salle High, he was 31-of-47 for 447 yards and 4 TDs. Mater Dei went 9-3 in 2000.

As a 1999 junior, he was the All-Serra League Offensive MVP while hitting 150-of-233 passes (64.4%) for 2,400 yards with 15 TDs and 6 interceptions. Mater Dei was the CIF Division I co-champion in 1999.

He sat out his 1998 sophomore season with a rotator cuff injury to his left (throwing) shoulder. Current Trojans Matt Grootegoed and Will Collins also prepped at Mater Dei.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC with a B- average (2.75 GPA).

(45) OSCAR LUA
Linebacker, 6-2, 240, So.*/Jr.

2004: Lua was a backup middle linebacker and key special teams player as a sophomore in 2004. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 12 games, he made 12 tackles, including 1 for a loss. He had 2 stops against Virginia Tech and Oregon State. He missed some of 2004 spring practice while recuperating from a knee injury.

2003: Lua hoped to push for the starting middle linebacker job as a sophomore in 2003. But he missed 2003 spring practice while recuperating from a knee injury suffered late in 2002. He then played briefly against BYU but reinjured the knee, forcing him out for the rest of the 2003 season (he had mid-season surgery). He was able to redshirt because of the early injury.

2002: Lua served as an often-used backup middle linebacker and played on special teams as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. Overall in 2002 while appearing in 11 games (all but Arizona State), he made 13 tackles, including a 14-yard sack, forced a fumble and recovered a fumble. He had 2 tackles against Oregon State, Washington State and UCLA. His sack was at Colorado (which caused a fumble that USC recovered to set up a TD) and his fumble recovery was at Kansas State. He tore ligaments in his right knee during bowl practice, had surgery and was sidelined.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 2001 Prep Star All-American, Max Emfinger All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest Defensive MVP, Prep Star All-Western Region, Tom Lemming All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools first team, All-CIF Division VIII first team, Los Angeles Times All-Southern California first team, Los Angeles Times All-Desert/Mountain first team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County first team and All-Desert Valley League Defensive MVP laurels as a senior linebacker at Indio (Calif.) High. Despite missing 3 games with an injury in 2001, he made 148 tackles (88 solo) with 3 sacks while averaging 13 stops a game, plus had 3 interceptions (one returned for a TD), 4 fumble recoveries, 6 forced fumbles and scored twice on blocked punts.

He also was an outfielder on Indio's baseball team, hitting .485 with 11 home runs in 2001 to earn All-League honors for the second consecutive season and then .456 with 28 RBI in 2002.

PERSONAL: His sports idol is ex-USC All-American and NFL star linebacker Junior Seau.

(71) TAITUSI LUTUI
Offensive Tackle, 6-6, 370, Jr./Jr.

2004: Lutui, a heralded junior college transfer who came to USC in the fall of 2004, started all season at right offensive tackle as a junior in 2004 and did a fine job.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He was named to the 2003 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, National Junior College Athletic Association All-American first team, Super Prep JUCO 100 and All-Western States Football League first team as a sophomore offensive lineman at Snow Junior College in Ephraim (Utah). Snow went 9-1 and tied for fourth in the final NJCAA poll.

He spent his 2002 freshman season at Mesa (Ariz.) Community College.

He originally signed with Utah in 2002, but did not qualify for admission.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a senior two-way lineman at Mesa (Ariz.) High in 2001, he was a Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, All-State, All-Region and All-Conference selection.

As a junior in 2000, he made All-State, All-Region and All-Conference.

PERSONAL: He was married in July of 2004 and his wife's name is Pua. His brother, Sam, is an assistant football coach at Southern Utah, where he also started on the line in 1995 and 1996. He is related to current BYU players Ofa Mohetau and David Tafuna and former Cougar T.J. Sitake (1999-2000). His nickname is "Deuce". He was born in Ha'api, Tonga.

(14) TOM MALONE
Punter, 6-0, 190, Jr./Jr.

CAREER: Malone's 44.6 career punting average (on 149 punts) is above the USC record (44.1 set by Des Koch in 1951-53) and equal to the all-time Pac-10 mark (44.6, by UCLA's Kirk Wilson in the mid-1950s). Fifty of his career punts have traveled at least 50 yards and 80 have pinned opponents within the 20-yard line.

2004: The strong-legged Malone, a record-setting All-American, was in his third season as USC's punter as a junior in 2004. He has proven to be a weapon whenever he boots the ball. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 12 games, he averaged 43.8 yards on 45 punts. He ranked 10th nationally in punting (43.8, first in Pac-10). A total of 26 of his 45 punts in 2004 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line and 12 traveled at least 50 yards (with a pair of 62-yarders). He was a semifinalist for the 2004 Ray Guy Award. He was named a 2004 SI.com All-American honorable mention. He made the 2004 All-Pac-10 first team (for the second consecutive year) and the ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team. He was named to the prestigious 2004 Playboy Pre-Season All-American team.

He averaged 42.8 yards on his 5 punts versus Virginia Tech (1 traveled 53 yards and 2 pinned the Hokies within the 20). He averaged 43.2 yards on his 4 punts against Colorado State (with 2 keeping CSU within the 20). He averaged 44.0 yards on 4 punts at BYU (all pinned the Cougars within the 20). He averaged 40.3 yards on his 3 punts at Stanford and 57.0 yards on his 2 punts (with a 62-yarder) against California. He averaged 48.7 yards on his 3 punts against Arizona State (with a 62-yarder for the second consecutive game), then 48.3 yards on his 3 punts against Washington (all of them kept UW within the 20), with a pair of 50-yarders. He averaged 37.3 yards on his 6 punts at Washington State (3 pinned WSU within the 20). He averaged 43.1 yards on 7 punts at Oregon State (5 pinned OSU within the 20), then 44.5 yards on his 2 punts versus Arizona. He averaged 43.0 yards on 2 punts against Notre Dame, with 1 stopping within the 20 (he had another punt partially blocked). At UCLA, he averaged 45.0 yards on his 4 punts (with a 59-yarder), but had a punt blocked and another returned for a TD.

2003: Malone, in his second season as USC's punter, proved to be the nation's top punter as just a sophomore. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he averaged 49.0 yards on his 42 punts. Some 24 of his 42 punts went at least 50 yards and 28 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line. He was 1 of 10 semifinalists for the 2003 Ray Guy Award and made the 2003 ESPN.com, SI.com and Collegefootballnews.com All-American first teams (USC's first-ever All-American first team punter), as well as the AP All-American second team. He was named to the 2003 All-Pac-10 first team, as well as the ESPN.com All-Pac-10 and Collegefootballnews.com All-Pac-10 first teams. His 49.0 punting average broke the USC season record by 3.4 yards (and was close to the Pac-10 season record of 49.3 set by UCLA's Kirk Wilson in 1956). He led the nation in punting for 5 consecutive weeks in the midseason and would have won the national punting title but, because of the efficiency of USC's offense, he was 5 punts shy of having the NCAA-required minimum 3.6 punts per game to be listed. In fact, his 49.0 average was 1.0 yards above the national leader. He also did a flawless job as the holder on all placekicks.

At Auburn, he boomed 7 punts for a 45.1 average (including 5 within the 20-yard line and 3 that went 50-plus yards, with a 70-yarder and then nailing his last one out of bounds at the Auburn 2). He then rocketed 5 of his 6 punts more than 50 yards (including a 59-yarder) against BYU for a 52.0 average and 5 of his boots pinned the Cougars within the 20-yard line (he was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week). He averaged 53.7 yards on 3 punts (with a 69-yarder) against Hawaii. At California, Malone averaged 50.5 on his 4 punts (2 pinned the Bears within the 20) but had a punt blocked. (70) ALATINI MALU
Offensive Guard, 6-4, 335, So./So.

2004: Malu, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2004 after transferring from a junior college, redshirted as a sophomore offensive guard in 2004. He was slowed early in the season after having an appendectomy in 2004 fall practice, then he broke a finger prior to the California game.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: He made the 2003 All-Mission Conference first team as a freshman offensive lineman at Long Beach (Calif.) City College. He originally signed with Cal State Northridge and was set to play there following his return from a 2-year Mormon mission in Austrailia, but the Matador program disbanded while he was serving his mission, so he enrolled at Long Beach City. Current Trojan John Drake also attended Long Beach City.

HIGH SCHOOL: He prepped at Torrance (Calif.) High, where as a senior offensive lineman in 1998 he did not allow a sack and was a Super Prep All-Farwest, All-CIF Division X, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay second team and All-Ocean League first team honoree.

PERSONAL: His nickname is "Tiny."

(51) FRED MATUA
Offensive Guard, 6-2, 305, So.*/Jr.

2004: Matua, who brings a defensive lineman's mentality to the offensive line, started for his second season at right offensive tackle as a sophomore in 2004 and performed solidly. He recovered a fumble following an interception at UCLA. He played most of the season with a tender ankle and back, both of which he sprained in fall practice. He made the 2004 Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American first team

2003: Matua started the first 6 games of 2003 at right offensive guard as a redshirt freshman, then backed up John Drake for the next 5 contests (seeing action in each game) before re-entering the starting lineup against Oregon State and Michigan in the Rose Bowl when Drake suffered a season-ending injury against UCLA. He made the 2003 Collegefootballnews.com Freshman All-American second team and The Sporting News Pac-10 All-Freshman first team .

2002: Matua was set to start the opener against Auburn at offensive guard (he also was available at center) as a freshman in 2002, his first year at USC. But he sprained his right knee in 2002 fall drills and that kept him out of the lineup against Auburn (he did see backup action in that contest). He then aggravated the injury prior to the Colorado game and missed that contest, returned to see brief action at Kansas State, then had arthroscopic surgery on the knee prior to the Oregon State game and was sidelined the rest of the season. Because of the early-season injury, he was allowed to redshirt. After the season he had hernia surgery.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2001 Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Tom Lemming All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-Western Region, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Las Vegas Sun Super 11 honorable mention and Orange County Register Fab 15 second team as a senior two-way lineman at Banning High in Wilmington (Calif.). He missed all but 3 games in 2001 with a broken leg.

As a junior in 2000, he was named to the All-L.A. City second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team first team and All-Marine League first team while getting 75 tackles, including 15 sacks, 5 forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and an interception. Banning won the 2000 L.A. City title.

(21) LenDALE WHITE
Tailback, 6-2, 235, So./So.

CAREER: White already is 21st on USC's prestigious career rushing list (with 1,739 yards). He has 26 rushing TDs in 25 career games (he has 29 TDs overall, second only to Mike Williams' 30 TDs for most by a Trojan by the end of his sophomore year), along with 7 games with 100 rushing yards.

2004: The hard-charging White, who provides the thunder to USC's offense, started all but 1 games (Washington State) of his 2004 sophomore season at tailback. Overall in 2004 while appearing in all 12 games, he rushed for 985 yards on 188 carries (5.2 avg.) with 13 TDs and caught 11 passes for 97 yards (8.8 avg.) with 2 TDs. He is on pace to become USC's 23rd 1,000-yard season rusher (he needs 15 yards in 2004). He ran for 100 yards in 4 games in 2004. A total of 574 of his rushing yards in 2004 (58.3%) came after contact. He had a co-team-best 15 TDs in 2004; USC's opponents scored only 18 TDs this season. He sprained his right ankle against Washington and played the rest of the season bothered by the injury. He made the 2004 All-Pac-10 second team, and the Collegefootballnews.com Sophomore All-American second team and the ESPN.com All-Pac-10 first team.

In the opener against Virginia Tech, he had a team-best 78 rushing yards on 15 carries (5.2 avg). He ran for a game-best 123 yards (the fourth 100-yard outing in his career) with 3 first-half TDs on just 14 carries (8.8 average) against Colorado State (he also caught a 22-yard pass). At BYU, he and Bush became the first Trojan duo to each break the 100-yard rushing barrier since Chad Morton and LaVale Woods did so against Oregon State in 1996, as he had 110 yards (with a 43-yard TD) on 17 carries (it was his second consecutive 100-yard game) and a 7-yard reception, while Bush had 124 rushing yards. He had 24 yards on 11 carries, including the game-winning 2-yard TD run late in the fourth quarter, at Stanford. He ran for 52 yards on 11 carries against California and caught 2 passes for 10 yards (with a 5-yard TD catch). He caught a 9-yard first quarter TD pass against Arizona State, plus ran for 68 yards on 16 carries and had 2 catches for 22 yards in just 3 quarters of action. He ran for 93 yards with 2 short TDs on 17 carries against Washington (he also caught 2 passes for 18 yards), then had a game-high 77 yards on 16 carries with 2 short TDs at Washington State. He ran for 116 yards on 25 tries (his sixth career 100-yard game and third of 2004) with a 5-yard TD and caught a 5-yard pass at Oregon State. He ran for a game-best 118 yards and 3 short touchdowns on 16 carries (his fourth 100-yard game of 2004, including his second in a row, and seventh of his career) against Arizona (he also had a season-long 54-yard scamper). He had 51 yards on 14 tries against Notre Dame and added 75 yards on 16 carries and 13 yards on 2 catches at UCLA.

2003: As just a first-year freshman tailback, White emerged by the middle of the 2003 season as USC's top runner while coming off the bench. Overall in 2003 while appearing in all 13 games, he ran for a team-high 754 yards on 141 carries (5.3 avg.) with 13 TDs, plus he had 6 catches for 15 yards (2.5 avg.) with 1 TD and 2 tackles. He had a trio of 100-yard games in 2003 (1 shy of tying Charles White's 4 in 1976), his 754 rushing yards were the second most ever by a USC freshman (behind Charles White's 858 in 1976), he was the first true freshman to lead USC in rushing in a season, his 13 rushing TDs were a USC freshman record and his 14 total touchdowns tied the USC freshman TD mark (with Mike Williams in 2002). He made the 2003 Collegefootballnews.com Freshman All-American second team and Rivals.com Freshman All-American honorable mention and All-Pac-10 honorable mention squads, as well as being named to the The Sporting News Pac-10 All-Freshman first team (and he was Offensive Freshman of the Year), ESPN.com All-Pac-10 Co-Newcomer of the Year and Collegefootballnews.com Pac-10 Freshman of the Year.

After running for 6 yards on 5 tries at Auburn and not getting any carries against BYU, he had a game-best 58 rushing yards on 10 carries with 2 TDs (5 and 20 yards) and made a tackle on special teams against Hawaii. He added 6 yards on 2 carries (with a 6-yard TD) at California. He then came off the bench to run for 140 yards—at the time, the most rushing yards ever by a Trojan first-year freshman—and 2 TDs (25 and 6 yards) on 21 carries at Arizona State (he became just the seventh USC true freshman to rush for 100 yards). Against Stanford, he became the first freshman (true or redshirt) in USC history to have consecutive 100-yard rushing games when he ran for 108 yards on 23 carries (both game highs) with 2 TDs (6 and 3 yards). He had 75 yards on 16 carries at Notre Dame and 29 yards on 9 carries with a 21-yard TD (plus he had a 10-yard reception) at Washington. Against a Washington State defense ranked third nationally in rushing defense (68.1), White ran for a game-best 149 yards—the most by a USC freshman (true or redshirt) and breaking his true freshman record of 140 set a month earlier at Arizona State—on 12 carries (a 12.4 average) with a TD, including non-scoring runs of 66 and 44 runs. At Arizona, White had a game-best 90 yards on 15 carries and scored TDs on runs of 1 and 43 yards to set the USC freshman season rushing TD record. He added 33 yards on 10 ties (with a 1-yard TD) and he caught 2 passes for 3 yards against UCLA. He ran for 34 yards with a 1-yard TD against Oregon State. He caught a 6-yard scoring pass and ran for 26 yards on 8 tries against Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

He rushed for 1,850 yards with 30 TDs, plus had 185 receiving yards with 2 TDs in 2001. Chatfield went 14-0 in 2001 and was the Class 5A champion. His coach at Chatfield was Dave Logan, the former Colorado All-American wide receiver who played in the NFL.

He played the 1999 and 2000 seasons at Denver (Colo.) South High, where he made the Rocky Mountain News All-Colorado first team in 2000 and the Rocky Mountain News Class 5A All-State first team both years.

He finished his career (he started all 4 years) as Colorado's career rushing leader, with 7,803 yards.

PERSONAL: He is the cousin of former Notre Dame (1998) and Pittsburgh (2000-01) tailback/wide receiver Darcey Levy (who played in the NFL), ex-Wyoming (1998-2002) linebacker Herman White and former Colorado point guard Chauncey Billups, now in the NBA.

PETE CARROLL
USC HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

It didn't take energetic and charismatic fourth-year USC head football coach Pete Carroll long to restore the glory of the Trojan football program and return Troy to national prominence. He is 41-9 (82.0%) as a college head coach (all at USC). His losses were by a total of 42 points (4.7 average) and only 1 was by more than a touchdown (it was by 11 points). After starting off his Trojan career 2-5, he has gone 39-4 (90.7%). He is 28-5 in Pac-10 games, giving him an 84.8% winning mark (a league record). He is 13-0 in November. His teams have posted 6 shutouts and have scored at least 20 points in the last 38 games (a school record). USC's 24 and 35 wins over the past 2 and 3 years represent the winningest 2- and 3-year periods in Trojan history. He also serves as USC's defensive coordinator.

In 2004, he has guided No. 1-ranked USC to its first trip to the BCS Championship Game and, with a win, back-to-back national championships. If USC wins, it would be only the second team ever to hold its AP pre-season ranking all the way through a season. His team is 12-0 (USC's best mark since 1972) and went 8-0 in the Pac-10. He also has led the Trojans to their third consecutive Pac-10 title and their third straight season sweep of traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame (a first at Troy). USC is riding a 21-game winning streak (as well as 21 straight home games, a Pac-10 record 15 consecutive league home game, 15 straight Pac-10 games and 9 road games in a row). USC has been AP's No. 1 team for 17 straight polls. Troy is in the national Top 10 in every defensive statistical category (its total defense average is USC's lowest in 15 years), including second in scoring defens and rushing defense. USC is outscoring opponents by 24.3 points (including a school-record 7 games with a margin of at least 30 points). A school-record 6 Trojans (Heisman Trophy quarterback Matt Leinart, tailback Reggie Bush, defensive linemen Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson, and linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu—were named All-American first teamers. He is a finalist for the 2004 Bear Bryant Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award and a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year Award. He was the 2004 ESPN.com Pac-10 Coach of the Year.

The 2003 season–his third at Troy–was one of the best in USC history. The Trojans won the AP national championship (USC's first national crown since 1978) and entered the Rose Bowl also ranked No. 1 in the USA Today/ESPN poll but weren't allowed to keep the top spot after winning that bowl because of a contractual agreement which required the coaches to vote the Sugar Bowl winner as their poll's champion (USC ended up second). USC was 12-1 overall (the only loss was by 3 points at California in triple overtime) and, at 7-1 in the Pac-10, Troy won its second consecutive league title for the first time since 1988-89 (and its first outright crown since 1989). His Trojans won their last 9 games and posted back-to-back seasons of double digit wins for the first time since 1978 and 1979. For just the second time in history (the other time also was 1978 and 1979), USC swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in consecutive years. His 2003 squad featured a potent offense, a stingy defense and productive special teams. USC had a stretch of 11 consecutive 30-point games (also a school mark) and 7 straight 40-point contests (a Pac-10 record). USC's 534 points was a Pac-10 record. The defense led the nation in rushing defense and was second in turnover margin, forced 42 turnovers and scored 8 touchdowns. And the Trojans topped the nation in net punting. Five Trojans–wide receiver Mike Williams, offensive tackle Jacob Rogers, defensive end Kenechi Udeze, punter Tom Malone and quarterback Matt Leinart–were first team All-Americans (Leinart and Williams finished sixth and eighth, respectively, in the Heisman Trophy voting).

For all this, Carroll was named the 2003 American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Coach of the Year, Home Depot National Coach of the Year, Maxwell Club College Coach of the Year, ESPN.com National Coach of the Year, Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. Coach of the Year and All-American Football Foundation Frank Leahy Co-Coach of the Year. He also was the Pac-10 Co-Coach of the Year (USC's first honoree since Larry Smith in 1988), a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year, 1 of 6 semifinalists for the Eddie Robinson/Football Writers Association of America Coach of the Year and American Football Coaches Association Division I-A Region 5 Coach of the Year. In early 2004, he received the Chuck Benedict Founders Award (for special achievement) from the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association, the Orange County Youth Sports Foundation Sportsman of the Year Award, the Spirit of Los Angeles Award from the Los Angeles Headquarters Association and the Vincent T. Lombardi Hall of Fame Award from the Boy Scouts of America San Gabriel Valley Council.

In 2002, just his second season at USC, his Trojans thrived despite playing what was ranked by the NCAA, Sagarin and the BCS as the nation's most difficult schedule (facing 9 AP-ranked teams and 11 bowl squads). USC—which beat Iowa in the Orange Bowl—posted an 11-2 overall record and a No. 4 ranking in the final polls, and won the Pac-10 championship while going 7-1. The Trojans also won their last 9 home games. It was USC's first 11-win season since 1979 and its highest ranking since 1988. Troy won its final 8 games (scoring at least 30 points in each), including blowouts of traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame (the first time USC beat both in the same season since 1981 and the first time in back-to-back games since 1978). USC led the Pac-10 in total offense (449.3) and total defense (284.9), as well as scoring offense (35.8) and scoring defense (18.5), and was in the NCAA's Top 25 in nearly every team statistical category on both sides of the ball. Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Carson Palmer and safety Troy Polamalu were first team All-Americans. Carroll was 1 of 8 finalists for the 2002 Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year Award and was 1 of 4 runners-up for the 2002 American Football Monthly Schutt Sports Division I-A Coach of the Year Award.

Carroll brought big doses of experience, enthusiasm and leadership in his quest to revive the USC football program when he was named the Trojans' head football coach on Dec. 15, 2000 (he signed a 5-year contract). After USC started off his opening 2001 season slowly at 1-4, Carroll stayed the course and got his troops to rally by winning 5 of their last 7 games (including the final 4 regular season contests) to finish at 6-6 overall. USC, which won its last 5 Pac-10 games after beginning league play at 0-3, placed fifth in the conference at 5-3 and earned a berth into the Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl. Putting an exclamation point on the regular season was a 27-0 blanking of No. 20 UCLA, USC's first shutout in the cross-town rivalry since 1947 and the series' biggest margin of victory since 1979.

The 53-year-old Carroll has 30 years of NFL and college experience, including 14 on the college level.

He was the head coach of the NFL's New England Patriots for 3 seasons (1997-99) and New York Jets for 1 year (1994). He guided the Patriots into the playoffs in his first 2 seasons, winning the AFC Eastern Division title at 10-6 in 1997 and advancing to the second round of the playoffs. His overall record in New England was 27-21 in the regular season and 1-2 in the playoffs. After serving as the Jets' defensive coordinator for 4 seasons (1990-93), he became the team's head coach the following season. His 1994 Jets went 6-10. He spent the next 2 years (1995-96) as the defensive coordinator with the San Francisco 49ers, who won the NFC Western Division title both seasons. Carroll began his coaching career at the college level, serving as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Pacific, for 3 years (1974-76), working with the wide receivers and secondary. He then spent a season as a graduate assistant working with the secondary at Arkansas (1977), and then a season each as an assistant in charge of the secondary at Iowa State (1978) and at Ohio State (1979). That Buckeye squad lost to USC in the 1980 Rose Bowl. He next spent 3 seasons (1980-82) as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at North Carolina State, then returned to Pacific in 1983 as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He entered the NFL in 1984 as the defensive backs coach of the Buffalo Bills, then held a similar position with the Minnesota Vikings for 5 seasons (1985-89). Carroll spent the 2000 season as a consultant for pro and college teams, doing charitable work for the NFL and writing a column about pro football for CNNSI.com.

Carroll was a 2-time (1971-72) All-Pacific Coast Conference free safety at Pacific and earned his bachelor's degree in 1973 in business administration. Dennis Slutak is in his second year at USC as a graduate assistant working with the special teams. He joined the Trojan staff in July of 2003.

In 2004, punter Tom Malone was an All-Pac-10 first teamer, while placekicker Ryan Killeen set the USC and Pac-10 career records for PATs and PAT attempts (he needs 4 points to tie the USC career points record).

In 2003, Malone was an All-American first teamer (USC's first punter so honored) who set the school record for season punting average (49.0), while Killeen set the Pac-10 season record for PATs (65) and tied the Trojan season mark for field goals (19).

USC played in the 2004 Rose Bowl and 2005 Orange Bowl (BCS Championship Game).

Slutak, 32, has 12 years of coaching experience and has been involved with special teams each season.

He began his coaching career as an assistant at Lincoln High in Tallahassee (Fla.) in 1993 and 1994. He also was there during the 1995 and 1997 spring practices. He tutored prep All-American Mark Mariscal, who went on to win the 2002 Ray Guy Award (nation's top punter) as an All-American at Colorado.

He then became an assistant at Lehigh for 3 seasons (1995-97). Punter Ben Talbott earned NCAA Division I-AA All-American first team honors in 1996 (and was an All-Patriot League first teamer in 1995 and 1996).

He spent the next 2 seasons (1998-99) as the special teams coordinator at Santaluces High in Lantana (Fla.). He also taught mathematics and physical education at Jefferson Davis Middle School.

He then was a graduate assistant for 2 seasons (2000-01) at North Carolina State, involved with the special teams. In 2001, Adam Kiker was the Atlantic Coast Conference's most accurate field goal kicker. The Wolfpack played in the 2000 Micronpc.com Bowl and the 2001 Tangerine Bowl.

He returned to Santaluces High in 2002 as the special teams coordinator (and he also resumed teaching at the middle school) before coming to USC.

He has served as an instructor at various kicking camps from 1994 to 2002.

He was a walk-on punter at Florida State in 1990 (the Seminoles won the inaugural Blockbuster Bowl).

He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Florida State in 1995 and his master's degree in liberal studies (athletic administration and management) from North Carolina State in 2002. He currently is working on another master's degree at USC.

He prepped at Forest Hill High in West Palm Beach (Fla.), where he played football.

Born May 30, 1972, he is single.

2004 USC GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – August 28, Landover, Maryland
Black Coaches Association Football Classic
USC 28, Virginia Tech 13
Att: 91,665

Virginia Tech	3	7	0	3	—	13
USC	7	0	7	10	—	24

TB Reggie Bush caught 3 long touchdown passes from QB Matt Leinart to propel top-ranked and defending national champion USC to a 24-13 comeback victory over unranked Virginia Tech in the collegiate season-opening Black Coaches Association Football Classic before a sold-out crowd of 91,665 fans at steamy FedEx Field in Landover, Md., and an ESPN national primetime audience.

It extended Troy's winning streak to 10 games.

Bush became the 10th USC player to catch a school-record 3 TD passes in a game, but the first running back to do so. He had 258 all-purpose yards (127 on 5 receptions, 60 on 4 punt returns, 44 on 3 kickoff returns and 27 on 9 rushes). He was named the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Week.

Following an interception by LB Lofa Tatupu, USC opened the scoring late in the first quarter as Bush took a short pass over the middle and raced 35 yards up the middle for a TD. But the Hokies answered on the next series with a 35-yard field goal by PK Brandon Pace. After a missed USC field goal on the ensuing possession, Virginia Tech took the lead midway through the second quarter when QB Bryan Randall hit WR Josh Hyman on a 12-yard scoring pass.

That lead held up until late into the third quarter until Bush hauled in a 53-yard Leinart bomb for a TD. But Virginia Tech pulled within 14-13 midway through the final quarter on a 42-yard Pace field goal. However, USC struck right back on the next series on a 29-yard Leinart scoring pass to a wide-open Bush. Then, following a fumble recovery by CB Ronald Nunn, PK Ryan Killeen nailed a 41-yard field goal.

Leinart was 19-of-29 for 272 yards (he was 11-of-13 for 170 yards and 2 TDs in the second half, with 11 consecutive completions at one point). TB LenDale White ran for 78 yards on 15 carries, while WR Steve Smith had 4 catches for 68 yards.

USC outgained Virginia Tech, 373 yards to 294, despite having less plays (63-58), possession time (31:31-28:29) and first downs (18-16).

The Hokies had 207 yards of total offense in the first half, but managed just 87 total yards in the second half. Randall was 14-of-29 passing for 153 yards and ran for a game-high 82 yards on 17 carries (he had 96 rushing yards in the first half), with TE Jeff King catching getting 4 grabs for 65 yards.

The Trojan defense posted 5 sacks, with DT Mike Patterson getting 2.5 (4 of his 6 tackles were for losses) along with a forced fumble. Tatupu added 8 tackles and S Darnell Bing had 7 stops.

It was USC's first meeting against Virginia Tech (playing its first game as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference) and its second-ever appearance in Maryland. The attendance not only was a FedEx Field record and the most ever to view a Virginia Tech game, but it was USC's largest road crowd since the 1994 UCLA game and its most for an opener since the 1980 contest at Tennessee.

USC, making its first Coliseum appearance as a No. 1-ranked team since 1981, opened its 2004 home slate impressively behind 3 rushing touchdowns from TB LenDale White and 4 interceptions by the defense to blank first-time opponent Colorado State, 49-0, on a hot evening before 85,521 Coliseum fans and a regional ABC-TV audience.

It was Troy's first shutout in a home opener since 1973 and the first time CSU was whitewashed in 85 games (and its worst loss in 8 years). It also was USC's 11th consecutive win and its 16 straight victory at home. It was the largest crowd for a home opener since 1988.

The Trojans rushed for 322 yards, their most since getting 331 at Ohio State in 1990. White, who ran for a game-best 123 yards (the fourth 100-yard outing in his career) on just 14 carries (8.8 average per carry), scored USC's first 3 TDs (11 yards in the first quarter, then 1 and 3 yards in the second quarter). Fellow TB Reggie Bush then added a 7-yard scoring run just before halftime as USC opened up a 28-0 lead at intermission. Bush rushed for 84 yards on 12 tries.

QB Matt Leinart, who was 20-of-31 for 231 yards in just 3 quarters of action (he also ran for a career-high 46 yards on 7 attempts), threw a pair of third-quarter TDs, a 5-yarder to WR Steve Smith—who caught a career-best 8 passes for 79 yards—and a 4-yarder to WR Dwayne Jarrett, who was celebrating his 18th birthday.

USC finished its scoring early in the fourth quarter when DE Jeff Schweiger sacked Rams QB Justin Holland and DT Manuel Wright raced 20 yards into the end zone with the recovery.

The Trojan defense forced 6 turnovers (scoring after 5 of them), with LB Matt Grootegoed picking off 2 passes (CB Eric Wright and LB Dallas Sartz also had interceptions and S Jason Leach had the other fumble recovery). Three of the turnovers came inside the USC 20-yard line.

USC had 553 total yards to CSU's 281 (the Rams had just 48 yards on the ground). The Trojans also had 32 first downs (21 in the first half), scored twice on 90-plus yard drives, held the ball 33:13 and limited CSU to 3-of-14 on third down conversions.

Holland was 19-of-35 for 233 yards, but he was sacked 4 times. CSU WR David Anderson had 9 grabs for 137 yards. USC unveiled its 2003 national championship banner at the game, which also included a moment of silence in honor of the third anniversary of Sept. 11.

GAME 3 – September 18, Provo, Utah
USC 42, BYU 10
Att: 63,467

USC	0	21	0	21	—	42
BYU	0	3	7	0	—	10

Top-ranked USC made its first visit to BYU a memorable one as it overwhelmed the Cougars, 42-10, before a near-capacity crowd of 63,467 fans in LaVell Edwards Stadium and a national ESPN audience.

It was USC's 12th consecutive win and its seventh straight road victory.

USC's offense rolled up 514 total yards, including 278 on the ground (with 4 rushing TDs) against a Cougar defense that was seventh nationally against the run (41.5). TBs Reggie Bush (124 yards—the first 100-yard outing of his career—and 1 TD on 14 carries) and LenDale White (110 yards—his second consecutive 100-yard game—and 1 TD on 17 carries) became the first Trojan duo to eclipse the 100-yard rushing barrier since Chad Morton and LaVale Woods did so against Oregon State in 1996. Coupled with the 322 rushing yards USC had in its previous game against Colorado State, the 600 rushing yards were the most by Troy in back-to-back games since getting 638 against Ohio State and Washington State in 1990.

And USC's defense limited BYU to just 207 total yards (only 13 rushing), 23:07 of possession time and 4-of-15 third down conversions while getting 4 turnovers and 4 sacks. The Trojans had a decided edge in plays (85 to 58) and first downs (26 to 11).

BYU held USC scoreless in the first quarter for the first time in Troy's past 17 games before PK Matt Payne gave the Cougars the lead with his 46-yard field goal early in the second quarter. But USC then scored 21 unanswered points before halftime: a 21-yard pass from QB Matt Leinart to Bush on the Trojans' ensuing possession, followed by a career-long 66-yard run by Bush with 2:03 to go and then a 15-yard Leinart TD pass to WR Dwayne Jarrett less than a minute later (3 plays after LB Lofa Tatupu recovered a BYU fumble).

But the Cougars, who had only 98 total yards at halftime compared to USC's 255, struck on their first play of the second half, a 69-yard scoring bomb from QB John Beck to WR Todd Watkins (the brother of USC OG Travis Watkins). However, USC controlled the rest of the game, getting fourth quarter TD runs from Leinart (1 yard for his first career score), White (43 yards) and FB Lee Webb (9 yards for his first career score).

Leinart was 22-of-34 for 236 yards and the 2 TDs (but he threw a first quarter interception to break a streak of 102 passes without a pick). WR Steve Smith had 6 catches for 62 yards, Bush added 4 for 42 yards (he had 211 all-purpose yards), WR Chris McFoy had 4 for 37 yards and Jarrett had 3 for 58 yards. Tatupu had a team-best 7 tackles and DE-DT Shaun Cody had 3 sacks.

For BYU, Beck hit 18-of-33 passes for 194 yards but was intercepted 3 times (by LB Matt Grootegoed, S Darnell Bing and CB Terrell Thomas), while Watkins had 4 catches for 94 yards.

The game was a homecoming for USC offensive coordinator Norm Chow, who returned for the first time to the school where he spent 27 years as an assistant.

GAME 4 – September 25, Palo Alto, California
USC 31, Stanford 28
Att: 55,750

USC	10	7	7	7	—	31
Stanford	7	21	0	0	—	28

No. 1 USC averted a major upset in its Pac-10 opener by overcoming an 11-point third quarter deficit to post a 31-28 victory at Stanford in front of 55,750 fans and a national TBS cable audience.

It was USC's 13th consecutive victory, as well as its eighth straight win on the road and in Pac-10 play.

It was a game of 2 halves. After surrendering 291 total yards in the first half to Stanford, USC shut out the Cardinal in the second half by allowing only 36 total yards and 2 first downs (Stanford penetrated midfield on only 1 drive that half). And the Trojans got 224 of their 383 total yards after halftime (along with 14 of their 23 first downs) while controlling the ball for 17:23.

USC jumped out to a 10-0 first quarter lead on a 23-yard field goal by PK Ryan Killeen on its opening possession and then a 2-yard TD pass from QB Matt Leinart to WR Steve Smith, 1 play after CB Kevin Arbet's 66-yard interception return.

But the Cardinal then scored on its next 4 possessions. First, QB Trent Edwards threw a pair of short TD passes to FL Evan Moore (3 yards) and TE Patrick Danahy (2 yards). Then, QB Kyle Matter ran 11 yards on a fake field goal late in the half after USC lost a fumble. Troy quickly pulled within 21-17 on a 17-yard tackle-breaking TD run by TB Reggie Bush with 52 second left in the half, but Stanford stunned the Trojans as TB J.R. Lemon—while trying to run out the clock—burst out of the pile and raced 82 yards for a TD on the half's final play.

But USC came out energized in the second half and got a pair of short TDs runs, first by Leinart (1 yard) late in the third quarter and then—aided by Bush's zig-zagging 33-yard punt return—by TB LenDale White (2 yards) with 6:15 to play.

Leinart hit a career-best 76.7% of his passes (23-of-30) for 284 yards, Bush had 240 all-purpose yards (95 on 16 rushes, 25 on 4 receptions, 85 on 4 kickoff returns and 35 on 2 punt returns) and Smith had 7 catches for 129 yards. LB Lofa Tatupu posted a game-high 10 tackles, LB Matt Grootegoed added 7 stops and LB Keith Rivers had 2 sacks.

For Stanford, Edwards was 23-of-35 for 183 yards (but just 3-of-9 for 19 yards in the second half) and Lemon ran 96 yards on 10 carries.

GAME 5 – October 9, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 23, California 17
Att: 90,008

California	0	10	7	0	—	17
USC	10	6	7	0	—	23

Top-ranked USC withstood an NCAA record-setting performance by California QB Aaron Rodgers and used a late goal line stand to hold off the No. 7 Golden Bears, 23-17, before a sold-out, vocal Coliseum crowd of 90,008 and an ABC-TV regional audience.

The victory over Cal, the only team to beat the Trojans in their last 26 games, was Troy's 14th consecutive win, as well as its 17th in a row at home and its ninth straight Pac-10 win. The crowd—the first home sellout in the series since 1930—was USC's largest in the Coliseum for a non-UCLA or Notre Dame game since the 1952 California contest.

Rodgers completed his first 23 passes to tie an NCAA single game record (he also set an NCAA season mark with 26 straight completions extending to his previous game), but he couldn't connect when it counted the most. He guided Cal to a first-and-goal at the Trojan 9-yard line with 1:47 to play, but a sack by DT Manuel Wright and 3 incomplete passes ended the Bears' upset hopes. Overall, Rodgers was 29-of-35 for 267 yards (including 14-of-14 for 133 yards in the first half), but he coughed up 2 fumbles and was sacked 5 times.

Cal dominated the statistics, more than doubling USC's first downs (28-12) and total yards (424-205) while getting more plays (79-50) and possession time (37:11-22:49). USC's total yards and plays were its fewest since 1998 (189 yards at Florida State and 49 plays versus TCU), while Cal's first downs were the most against USC since 1999 (29 by Oregon). But the Bears, who were first nationally in scoring offense (48.7) and second in total offense (539.0), were held to 41 points and 115 yards under their averages, and they also had 3 costly turnovers.

USC jumped out to a 10-0 first quarter lead on a 5-yard pass from QB Matt Leinart to TB LenDale White (after a botched Cal punt attempt) and a 31-yard field goal by PK Ryan Killeen (following a fumble recovery by DT Mike Patterson). Cal got on the board early in the second quarter with a 39-yard field goal by PK Tom Schneider, but Killeen answered with a 33-yard field goal (after CB Eric Wright recovered a fumbled punt return by Cal). The Bears responded on the ensuing series, as Rodgers hit WR Geoff McArthur for a 20-yard TD, but Killeen hit his third field goal of the half (a 42-yarder) just 3 seconds before intermission.

The teams traded TDs on their opening series of the second half, first a 16-yard Leinart toss to WR Dwayne Jarrett and then TB Marshawn Lynch's 2-yard run. Neither team could score anymore, with USC failing to get a first down in its final 4 possessions and Cal losing a fumble (recovered again by Patterson) and missing a field goal before its unsuccessful final drive. USC had just 78 yards of total offense in the second half.

Leinart was 15-of-24 for 164 yards, but was intercepted once (4 plays after an 84-yard kickoff return by TB Reggie Bush in the third quarter). White ran for 52 yards on 11 carries and Jarrett had 4 catches for 37 yards.

Cal TB J.J. Arrington had 112 yards on 21 carries to become the first runner over 100 yards against USC in 14 games, while McArthur had 7 grabs for 101 yards.

LB Lofa Tatupu (13 tackles) was among 4 Trojans in double figures in tackles (with S Scott Ware's 12, Patterson's career-high 10 and LB Dallas Sartz's 10). Patterson, who also had 2 tackles for losses (with a sack) and a forced fumble, was named the Walter Camp Football Foundation National Defensive Player of the Week, Football Writers Association of America Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week and Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week for his showing. All 6 of Killeen's kickoffs were touchbacks (Killeen was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week).

It was the first time since 1968 that the teams met when both were ranked and it also was the highest-ranked Cal squad USC had faced since 1952. ESPN's "College GameDay" show made its first visit to the Coliseum.

Arizona State	0	7	0	0	—	7
USC	14	28	0	3	—	45

Top-ranked USC used a 42-point first half—behind 4 touchdown passes from QB Matt Leinart and school single game record-tying 3 scoring grabs by true freshman WR Dwayne Jarrett—to demolish No. 15 Arizona State, 45-7, before a sold-out Coliseum crowd of 90,211 and an ABC-TV regional audience.

It was USC's 15th consecutive win (the last 3 were over undefeated teams), as well as its 18th victory in a row at home, 10th straight Pac-10 win and 10th consecutive victory over an AP Top 25 team. It was USC's fifth consecutive win over ASU, but its first in 5 tries over a ranked Sun Devil team. It was also USC's second consecutive Coliseum sellout (only the second time in history it has done that, the other being in 1947) and the largest crowd to see a non-UCLA/non-Notre Dame home game since 1952.

USC led 42-7 at halftime and had nearly doubled the Sun Devils in total offense (307 to 155) and first downs (15 to 8). It was the most points in a half by USC since 1981 (when it had 42 at Oregon State). All of ASU's first half yardage came through the air and the Sun Devils converted just 3 of 10 first downs while being assessed 8 penalties.

USC jumped out to a 21-0 lead on Leinart scoring tosses to TBs Reggie Bush (10 yards) and LenDale White (9 yards) in the first quarter and to Jarrett early in the second quarter (19 yards on the play following LB Matt Grootegoed's interception). After ASU got in the end zone on TB Hakim Hill's 2-yard run following a Trojan fumble, USC scored TDs on its final 3 possessions of the second quarter (all in the last 5:08): a 1-yard Leinart sneak, then Jarrett catches from Bush on a reverse (52 yards) and Leinart (34 yards).

The game's only second half scoring came on a 34-yard fourth quarter field goal by PK Ryan Killeen as USC played mainly its reserves in the final period.

Overall, USC had 446 total yards and 23 first downs against a Sun Devil defense that was in the national Top 25 in every stat category (allowing just 12.8 points and 304.4 total yards). Leinart was 13-of-24 for 224 yards in 3 quarters of work (he was 11-of-16 for 193 yards and the 4 TDs in the first half), Jarrett had 5 catches for a career-best 139 yards (he was named Rivals.com National Freshman of the Week), White ran for 68 yards on 16 carries (and had 2 catches for 22 yards) and Bush had 115 all-purpose yards (49 on 2 punt returns, including a 41-yarder in which he barely stepped out of bounds as he was breaking into the clear, plus 45 yards on 2 receptions and 21 on 5 carries). Six of Killeen's 8 kickoffs were touchbacks. LB Dallas Sartz led USC with 7 tackles and S Darnell Bing added 6 tackles and an interception.

For ASU, which overall managed just 243 total yards (24 rushing) and 13 first downs (converting only 5-of-17 third downs) while surrendering 8 sacks, QB Andrew Walter was 19-of-34 for 181 yards but was intercepted twice (he had thrown only 1 pick in 179 season attempts coming in and was the ASU career recordholder with 70 TDs), with TE Zach Miller getting 8 grabs for 102 yards. Walter became ASU's career leader in passing yardage and completions.

The 50 millionth fan (Jim Farrell of Long Beach) to see a USC football game, home and away, came through the gates.

GAME 7 – October 23, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 38, Washington 0
Att: 72,855

USC	0	10	21	7	—	38

QB Matt Leinart threw 2 touchdowns passes, TB LenDale White ran for 2 more and the Trojan defense allowed just 113 total yards as No. 1 USC whitewashed Washington, 38-0, before 72,855 fans and a FSN national cable audience watching the 75th meeting in the series.

It ended Washington's national-best active streak of consecutive games without being shut out at 271 (dating to 1981) and assured the Huskies—who moved to 1-6 overall (their worst start since 1973)—of their first losing record since 1976. It was USC's first shutout in the series since 1965 and its biggest margin of victory over UW since 1954. It also extended USC's winning streak to 16 in a row (plus 19 consecutive at home and 11 straight Pac-10 games) and gave the Trojans their best start (7-0) since 1988.

UW's total yards, 63 passing yards and 7 completions were the fewest allowed by USC since the 2002 Colorado game (61, 24 and 2). USC also limited Washington to 6 first downs (the fewest since Notre Dame had 4 in 2002), no third down conversions on 14 attempts (and 0-of 1 on fourth down tries) and just 20:51 of possession time (the lowest since Texas Tech had 19:58 in the 1995 Cotton Bowl).

USC led just 10-0 after a sluggish first half on a 29-yard field goal by Ryan Killeen (after LB LofaTatupu's fumble recovery) and a 15-yard Leinart scoring pass to TB Reggie Bush, both in the second quarter.

But the Trojans scored on their first 2 possessions of the second half, on a 3-yard White run (following DE Frostee Rucker's fumble recovery on UW's first play) and then a 29-yard Leinart strike to WR Jason Mitchell (for his first career TD). The Trojans scored again late in the third quarter on White's 2-yard run and then late in the game with all the reserves in on TB Desmond Reed's 28-yard run (his first career score).

USC piled up 453 total yards (256 through the air) and 28 first downs while running off 90 plays (USC's most since the 2002 California game) to Washington's 55 (the fewest by a USC foe since the 2002 Notre Dame contest). The Huskies averaged just 2.1 yards per play. Troy's 48 pass attempts were its most since the 2002 Washington State game.

Leinart was 24-of-43 (a career-high attempts) for 217 yards and an interception before getting replaced after the first series of the fourth quarter. White ran for 93 yards on 17 carries and Bush had 126 all-purpose yards (55 on 13 carries, 41 on a game- and career-best 6 receptions and a 30-yard punt return). Thirteen Trojans caught passes, including TE Dominique Byrd (57 yards) and WR Dwayne Jarrett (31 yards), who each had 5 grabs. LB Matt Grootegoed had a team-best 5 tackles (2 for losses) and forced a fumble, LB Keith Rivers had an interception and 4 stops and Rucker had 2 tackles for loss and a forced fumble along with his fumble recovery. Killeen had 6 touchbacks for the fourth time in 2004, while Malone averaged 48.3 yards on his 3 punts.

For Washington, QB Isaiah Stanback made his first career start and was just 3-of-16 for 27 yards before being replaced in the fourth quarter by QB Casey Paus (who went 4-of-12 for 36 yards with a pick). DT Manase Hopoi had a UW game record-tying 6 tackles for a loss (with 3 sacks). The Huskies got into USC territory on just 2 of their 16 drives, missing first half field goals (both coming after USC turnovers), and they had just one play longer than 11 yards (an 18-yard run).

GAME 8 – October 30, Pullman, Washington
USC 42, Washington State 12
Att: 35,117

USC	21	14	7	0	—	42
Wash. State	0	0	12	0	—	12

No. 1 USC used an impressive offensive performance—TBs Reggie Bush and LenDale White both scored 2 touchdowns and QB Matt Leinart threw a pair of TDs to WR Dwayne Jarrett—and a strong defensive showing to cruise to a 42-12 win at cold (upper 30s), wet Washington State before a sold out crowd of 35,117 and an ABC-TV regional audience.

It was Troy's 17th consecutive win, as well as its 12th straight Pac-10 victory and ninth win in a row on the road.

The game was over quickly, as USC led 14-0 before WSU's offense got on the field. By halftime, it was 35-0, as the Trojans had 289 yards and 16 first downs to the Cougars 54 and 4.

After WSU tied an unsuccessful onside kick to open the game, it took USC just 5 plays to score, as Bush ran 19 yards for a TD. Then, after WSU couldn't handle the ensuing kickoff (TB Desmond Reed recovered it), it was only another 2 plays before USC scored again (a 1-yard White run). Then, midway through the first quarter, Bush took a punt, reversed his field and went 57 yards to the end zone. USC scored twice more in the middle of the second quarter: first on a 42-yard Leinart pass to Jarrett and then, 5 plays after DT Mike Patterson recovered a fumble (caused on a sack by DT Shaun Cody), White ran 7 yards.

USC scored on its first possession of the second half on a 4-yard pass from Leinart to Jarrett to open up a 42-0 lead.

WSU finally got on the board late in the third quarter following a pair of USC turnovers when the Trojans were playing many backups. First, WR Michael Bumpus caught a 24-yard pass from QB Alex Brink after a USC fumble and then LB Pat Bennett intercepted a pass by QB Matt Cassel on USC's next offensive play and ran 28 yards for a score.

Overall, USC dominated the statistics, getting more total yards (421-156), plays (84-65), first downs (25-11) and possession time (38:54-21:06). The Cougars ran for minus 9 yards, converted just 5-of-18 third downs and had 4 turnovers (they fumbled 7 times). It was the first time since 1996 that WSU was held to less than 200 yards of total offense.

Leinart was 23-of-28 for 235 yards (he was 18-of-21 for 203 yards in the first half), White ran for a game-best 77 yards on 26 carries, Bush had 143 all-purpose yards (42 on 14 rushes, 23 on 5 catches and 78 on 3 punt returns), TB Hershel Dennis added 55 yards on 11 rushes, TE Dominique Byrd caught 5 passes for 32 yards and Jarrett grabbed 4 for 64.

Brink was 17-of-40 for 165 yards, but threw an interception, lost 2 fumbles and was sacked 5 times. Bumpus caught a game-best 6 passes for 68 yards. WSU's top rusher was its punter, Kyle Bassler, who went 17 yards on a fake punt.

LB Matt Grootegoed led USC with 6 tackles (3 for losses, with a sack), LB Lofa Tatupu added 5 stops (2.5 for losses, with a sack) and Patterson recovered 2 fumbles.

USC was greeted in pre-game warm-ups with pounding hail, and rain fell during the first few minutes of the game. It was the first time ever that a No. 1 team visited Martin Stadium.

Oregon State	6	7	0	7	—	20

Playing in thick fog on a cold (40 degrees) night in Corvallis, TE Dominique Byrd caught a pair of TD passes from QB Matt Leinart and TB Reggie Bush had a dazzling scoring punt return for the second week in row to help No. 1 USC overcome feisty Oregon State, 28-20, before a sold-out crowd of 36,412 and a FSN national cable audience.

It was USC's 18th consecutive win, as well as its 13th straight Pac-10 win and it's 10th in a row on the road.

After falling behind 13-0, the Trojans scored the next 28 points. The Beavers jumped ahead on a pair of first quarter field goals by PK Alexis Serna (25 yards after recovering a USC fumble and 32 yards) and then an 8-yard pass from QB Derek Anderson to WR Marcel Love in the second quarter. But then Byrd made a one-handed grab of a Leinart pass for an 18-yard TD late in the half. Following an interception by LB Lofa Tatupu early in the third quarter, Leinart hit Byrd for another score (a 25-yarder) to give USC the lead for good.

Then, early in the fourth quarter, Bush was pinned along the OSU sideline after fielding a punt, but reversed his field and went 65 yards for a TD. USC scored again on its next possession, as TB LenDale White ran 5 yards for a score.

Late in the game, Anderson hit WR Josh Hawkins for a 36-yard score (it was the first TD USC surrendered in the fourth quarter in 2004), but USC recovered the ensuing onside kick.

USC's offense was balanced (210 yards rushing, 205 passing), while the Trojan defense limited OSU to 34 rushing yards and no third down conversions on 13 tries while posting 12 tackles for loss.

Overall, Byrd caught 7 passes for 85 yards (career highs), White ran for 116 yards on 25 tries (his sixth career 100-yard game), Bush had 249 all-purpose yards (88 on 11 rushes, 82 on 3 kickoff returns, 73 on 3 punt returns and 6 on 2 receptions) to earn Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors and Leinart was 17-of-31 for 205 yards (he threw an interception at the goal line late in the first half). LB Matt Grootegoed had 9 tackles, including 4 for losses, and a fumble recovery, CB Justin Wyatt added a career-best 8 tackles, DT Mike Patterson had 7 stops, including 5 for losses and S Jason Leach had an interception.

For OSU, Anderson was 22-of-51 for 330 yards and WR Mike Hass caught 8 passes for 119 yards.

It was the first time USC played in fog since 1937.

Att: 80,167

Arizona	3	0	6	0	—	9
USC	0	14	21	14	—	49

TB LenDale White rushed for 3 touchdowns and QB Matt Leinart threw for 3 more, including a pair to WR Dwayne Jarrett, to help No. 1 USC smash Arizona, 49-9, before a Homecoming crowd of 80,167 in the Coliseum and a FSN national cable audience.

The win gave Troy its third straight Pac-10 title and clinched a berth in—at worst—the Rose Bowl. It was USC's school record-tying 20th consecutive home victory, as well as its 19th consecutive win and its 14th straight Pac-10 conquest.

After a sluggish first half, the Trojans exploded in the second half, scoring the game's final 28 points. Arizona jumped out to a 3-0 lead on a career-long 48-yard field goal by PK Nick Folk in the first quarter.

USC took control in the second quarter as Leinart hit FB David Kirtman for a 5-yard score (Kirtman's first career TD) and then White ran in from 3 yards out (a play after a 55-yard reverse pass from TB Desmond Reed to Jarrett). Troy drove 76 yards on the opening series of the second half, culminating with a 2-yard White run.

Arizona scored later in the third quarter on a 9-yard pass from QB Richard Kovalcheck to TE Steve Fleming. But USC responded with touchdowns on its next 4 possessions: a 6-yard White run, 13- and 12-yard Leinart passes to Jarrett and a 1-yard run by TB Hershel Dennis.

USC piled up a season-high 585 total yards (including a season-best 369 through the air) while holding the Wildcats to 255, and the Trojans also had more first downs (25-14), plays (78-57) and possession time (33:48-26:12).

White ran for game-high 118 yards on 16 carries (his fourth 100-yard game of 2004 and seventh of his career), Leinart completed a career-best 27 passes in 35 attempts for 280 yards (he hit 11 consecutive passes in the first half and was 12-of-14 for 173 yards in the second half), Jarrett had 6 grabs for a career-high 144 yards (his second 100-yard game of 2004) and TE Dominique Byrd had a game-high 8 receptions for 72 yards. LB Lofa Tatupu had a game-best 11 tackles, while CB Justin Wyatt and DE Lawrence Jackson each had an interception.

For Arizona, which converted just 2-of-12 third downs, Kovalcheck was 15-of-32 for 165 yards and TB Mike Bell ran for 74 yards on 15 carries.

GAME 11 – November 27, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 41, Notre Dame 10
Att: 92,611

Notre Dame	7	3	0	0	—	10
USC	3	14	10	14	—	41

QB Matt Leinart threw a school record-tying 5 touchdown passes to lead No. 1 USC to its third consecutive 31-point victory over intersectional rival Notre Dame, this time 41-10 on a chilly, wet evening before a Coliseum capacity crowd of 92,611 and a national ABC-TV audience.

It equaled USC's largest victory margin over ND.

Leinart, whose 5 TD throws also tied an Irish opponent record (and was the second time he has thrown 5 scores in his career), made quite a Heisman impression on a national stage as he threw for personal-best 400 yards (the second most-ever versus Notre Dame) on 24-of-34 passing with no interceptions.

It was USC's 20th consecutive victory, as well as a school record 21st in a row in the Coliseum. At 11-0, USC got off to its best start since 1972. The victory kept alive the Trojans' quest for a spot in the BCS Championship Game.

Notre Dame took a 10-3 lead early in the second quarter by scoring on its first 2 possessions (and gaining 165 total yards): a 1-yard, fourth down pass from QB Brady Quinn to TE Billy Palmer and then, following a 39-yard field goal by PK Ryan Killeen, PK D.J. Fitzpatrick answered back with a 28-yard field goal.

But it was all USC the rest of the way, as the Trojans scored 38 unanswered points. First, Leinart hit WR Dwayne Jarrett on a pair of scoring passes (12 and 57 yards) late in the first half. Then, the Trojans scored on their first 4 possessions of the second half on a 42-yard Killeen field goal, a 69-yard Leinart pass to TB Reggie Bush (he took a short pass out of the backfield and outraced the Irish defense), a 35-yard Leinart strike to WR Steve Smith early in the final quarter (Smith had missed the previous 5 games with a broken leg) and then a 23-yard Leinart toss to WR Jason Mitchell.

Overall, Jarrett had 6 catches for 102 yards (his third 100-yard outing of 2004), Smith had 4 for 96 yards and TB LenDale White ran for 51 yards on 14 carries. USC piled up 488 total yards to ND's 300. The Trojans allowed the Irish just 4-of-15 third down conversions and only 16 first downs.

Notre Dame rushed for 195 yards, the most allowed by USC in 2004, behind TBs Ryan Grant (94 yards on 15 tries) and Darius Walker (64 yards on 11 carries). Quinn was 15-of-29 for 105 yards.

USC LB Lofa Tatupu had a game-best 8 tackles, while LB Matt Grootegoed and DE-DT Shaun Cody both had 6 stops.

The loss left Notre Dame 0-4 against top-ranked Trojan squads. USC, coming off a bye, set both USC home attendance (511,373) and Pac-10 home per game average attendance (85,229) records.

There was a constant drizzle throughout the first quarter-and-a-half and then rain returned with 12 minutes to go in the game. ESPN's "College GameDay" pre-game show made a visit to the Coliseum for the second time in 2004 (and ever).

GAME 12 – December 4, Pasadena, California
USC 29, UCLA 24
Att: 88,442

USC	10	10	3	6	—	29
UCLA	0	10	7	7	—	24

TB Reggie Bush had a pair of electrifying touchdown runs among his career-best 335 all-purpose yards and PK Ryan Killeen kicked a school-record (and a Pac-10 conference game record) 5 field goals as No. 1 USC held off pesky UCLA, 29-24, before a soldout crowd of 88,442 in the Rose Bowl and a national ABC-TV audience.

The win—giving Troy the outright Pac-10 title—propelled USC into the BCS Championship Game in the Orange Bowl. It was USC's sixth consecutive victory over the Bruins (a Trojan best) and it gave Troy its third consecutive season sweep over traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame for the first time in school history. It also was USC's 21st consecutive win, its 15th straight Pac-10 victory and its eighth road win in a row. At 12-0, USC tied its best-ever start with the 1972 team.

Bush ran for a career-best 204 yards (the most by a Trojan since Shawn Walters' 234 in 1994 at Stanford) on 15 carries (he had 153 yards and both TDs on just 6 carries in the first half), plus he had 73 yards on a game-best 6 catches, 39 yards on 2 kickoff returns and 19 yards on 2 punt returns. He zig-zagged 65 yards for a TD run on the game's second play, then jetted a career-long 81 yards for another score midway through the second quarter.

USC held a 10-0 lead after Killeen's 37-yard field goal midway through the first quarter, but FL Craig Bragg had a UCLA-record 96-yard punt return in the second quarter to give the Bruins life. However, 2 plays after a missed UCLA field goal (following a blocked Trojan punt), Bush had his 81-yard score. The teams then traded field goals late in the half, as PK Justin Medlock hit a 43-yarder and Killeen answered with a 42-yarder with 9 seconds to go. USC had a 268 to 72 edge in total offense in the half (and 10 first downs to UCLA's 3).

Killeen added a 34-yarder midway through the third quarter, but TB Manuel White's 9-yard scoring run late in the quarter brought UCLA within 23-17. Killeen added fourth quarter field goals of 36 and 34 yards in the final quarter before QB Drew Olson lofted a 4-yard TD pass to TE Marcedes Lewis late in the contest for the game's final points.

USC had 477 total yards to UCLA's 295 (the Bruins had only 17 of those yards on the ground). Although Troy controlled the ball for 34:33, it converted just 1-of-13 third downs (UCLA made good on only 3-of-14). QB Matt Leinart was 24-of-34 for 242 yards and an interception (he completed his first 10 passes of the game and was 15-of-17 for 103 yards in the first half), but he was held without a TD throw for the first time in 25 games as a starter. TB LenDale White added 75 yards on 16 carries, WR Dwayne Jarrett had 5 catches for 44 yards and LB Lofa Tatupu had a game-high 10 tackles (with an interception).

For UCLA, QB Drew Olson was 20-of-34 for 278 yards and 2 interceptions, while Bragg made 6 catches for 67 yards and SE Junior Taylor had 5 for 89 yards.

It was the 75th anniversary of the first USC-UCLA game in 1929.
